STATISTICAL ANNEXE

1. OVERVIEW

Global growth slowed to 3.1 percent due to lacklustre performance from the advanced economies, low commodity prices and weak global demand. The European economy grew by 1.7 percent. The United Kingdom, although appeared resilient in the wake of BREXIT, experienced growth of 1.8 percent. The US economy recorded 1.6 percent growth on account of an improved housing market and strong consumption. Growth in emerging market was mixed while that of developing countries strengthened slightly. Together, these countries accounted for over three quarters of global growth.

Notwithstanding, unemployment in the developed countries was 7.0 percent while that of emerging and developing economies averaged 14 percent. Global inflation remained subdued on account of low commodity prices. Global developments such as fragile growth and geopolitical risk have influenced a continuation of easy monetary policy.

The Guyanese economy registered mixed output performances compared to the same period last year due to lower commodity prices and inclement weather. The mining & quarrying sector output of gold, diamond and stone were higher due to substantive contributions from the new and existing gold mining companies. The manufacturing sector experienced increased production of margarine, paints, alcoholic beverages and liquid pharmaceuticals. The services sector recorded weaker activities in the wholesale & retail trade and other service industries.

The agriculture sector experienced output declines in sugar, rice and forestry due to severe weather, lower commodity prices and lesser yields per hectare.

The inflation rate was 1.1 percent mainly due to the increase in the price index of food by 3.3 percent. The housing (which comprises of fuel & power) and the transport & communication categories recorded smaller price declines of 0.1 percent and 0.3 percent relative to decreases of 1.8 percent and 2.9 percent respectively at end-third quarter 2015.

The overall balance of payments recorded a lower deficit of US$20.6 million compared to US$78.4 million for the same period last year. This outturn was primarily due to a higher capital account surplus on account of higher inflows to the private sector in the form of foreign direct investment. The deficit on the current account contracted by US$84.4 million as a result of a lower merchandise trade deficit.

The overall value of transactions on the foreign exchange market increased by 11.3 percent or US$505.6 million to US$4,990.2 million. This outturn was due to higher bank and non-bank cambios, hard & soft currency as well as foreign currency account transactions. The market experienced net purchases of US$36.8 million which caused the exchange rate of the Guyana dollar against the United States dollar to remain stable at G$206.50 at the end of September 2016.

The overall surplus of the Non-Financial Public Enterprises improved to G$6,293 million due to lower current and capital expenditures.

Domestic debt stock amounted to G$85,879 million compared with G$78,868 million for the corresponding period last year. Treasury bills accounted for 93.9 percent of total domestic debt due to the increase in issuance of 182- and 364-day treasury bills. Domestic debt service payments were G$1,398 million and accounted for 1.1 percent of government revenue which was far below the prudential liquidity measure. The stock of external debt increased marginally to US$1,154 million on account of an increase in loan disbursements of US$11 million from China for project financing. External debt service payments contracted by 51.9 percent due to the discontinuance of credit delivered under the PetroCaribe Agreement.

The monetary aggregates of reserve money and broad money grew by 7.8 percent and 1.1 percent respectively. The former was mainly due to an increase in the net foreign assets of the Bank while the latter reflected expansions in both net foreign assets and net domestic credit. Private sector credit grew by 0.4 percent, a slower rate than the 2.4 percent one year ago. There were marginal movements in the commercial banks' interest rates. The weighted average lending rate and treasury bills rates declined while the savings rate was stable during the review period.

The financial resources of the Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs), which includes depository and non-depository financial institutions, increased marginally by 0.6 percent to G$204,726 million. Notwithstanding, the sector's share of total assets in the financial sector declined marginally from 31.5 percent to 30.5 percent.

The financial system was still relatively sound at end-September 2016 with the Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) being adequately capitalised, highly liquid and profitable. Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) continued to exceed the prudential 8.0 percent benchmark. Asset quality remained acceptable, in spite of the rise in non-performing loans.

2. REVIEW OF THE THIRD QUARTER FOR 2016

PRODUCTION

The major economic sectors of the Guyanese economy registered mixed output performances due to lower commodity prices and inclement weather. The mining & quarrying sector experienced expansions in gold, diamond and stone output by 74.0 percent, 20 percent and 10.6 percent respectively. The increase in gold declarations was on account contributions from small and medium scale miners of 317,517 ounces and from two foreign gold mining companies - Guyana Goldfields and Troy Resources – of 165,419 ounces.

The manufacturing sector registered higher production of margarine, paints, alcoholic beverages and liquid pharmaceuticals by 7.1 percent, 5.6 percent, 4.4 percent and 0.2 percent respectively. Electricity generation grew by 7.0 percent relative to 6.8 percent growth in the previous year.

The services sector activities were lower from wholesale & retail trade as well as other services industries. The wholesale & retail industry experienced lower demand for durable, intermediate and capital goods. The financial services sector slower growth due to weaker private sector credit growth, of 4.1 percent (year on year) relative to 6.5 percent growth at end-September 2015. There were lesser transportation & storage activities generated from the agriculture sub-sectors.

The agricultural sector experienced declines in the production of sugar, rice and forestry by 35.5 percent, 15.5 percent and 14.3 percent, respectively. The outturn was attributed to severe weather, lower commodity prices and lesser yields per hectare for rice and vegetables. Egg production declined by 32.7 percent due to fewer egg layers.

INFLATION

The inflation rate was 1.1 percent (year to date) mainly due to increase in the price index of food by 3.3 percent. The housing (which comprises of fuel & power) and the transport & communication categories recorded smaller price declines of 0.1 percent and 0.3 percent relative to decreases of 1.8 percent and 2.9 percent respectively at end-third quarter 2015.

BALANCE OF PAYMENTS

The overall balance of payments recorded a lower deficit of US$20.6 million from US$78.4 million for the corresponding period last year. This outturn was primarily due to a higher capital account surplus which more than offset the deficit on the current account.

The current account balance contracted by 57.5 percent or US$84.4 million to US$62.3 million. This outturn was mainly on account of a contraction of the merchandise trade deficit by 52.5 percent to reach US$160.0 million from US$337.1 million recorded in the corresponding period last year. This resulted from high export receipts which rose by 26.4 percent or US$211.0 million to US$1009.4 million. Merchandise imports increased by 3.0 percent or U$33.9 million which resulted from higher imports of capital and consumption goods by 32.9 percent and 3.6 percent respectively.

The high export earnings came from gold receipts which rose by 79.4 percent or US$254.8 million and from "other exports" (non-traditional exports) by 14.1 percent or US$21.2 million. However, there were lower export receipts from sugar by 31.5 percent or US$13.6 million, rice by 20.9 percent or US$35.3 million, timber by 14.1 percent or US$4.7 million, and bauxite by 14.0 percent or US$11.4 million.

The deficit on the services account expanded by 34.5 percent or US$36.5 million to reach US$142.1 million. This was on account of higher payments for non-factor services such as travel and commercial services, as well as higher net outflow of factor services. Remittances decreased by 19.0 percent or US$56.2 million to US$239.8 million.

The capital account registered a higher surplus of US$82.4 million from US$42.7 million on account greater inflows to the private sector in the form of foreign direct investment. Inflows from bilateral and multilateral agencies decreased by 12.5 percent to US$35.2 million.

The overall deficit was financed mainly by exceptional financing in the form of debt forgiveness. The accumulation of gross international reserves amounted to US$610.4 million and equivalent to 3.7

months of import cover at the end of the quarter.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE MARKET

Foreign currency transactions expanded by 11.3 percent to US$4,990.2 million compared to US$4,484.6 million at end-September 2015. Total reported purchases and sales were US$2,513.5 million and US$2,476.7 million respectively.

Transactions processed at the banks and non-banks cambios were U$$2,318.7 million. This segment of the market recorded an increase of 9.3 percent or U$$196.8 million in the value of trades. At the Bank, hard currency inflows and outflows increased to U$$648.7 million from U$$619.9 million while net inflows were U$$12.9 million. The value of foreign currency account transactions rose by 15.8 percent to U$$2,002.8 million, with net credit being U$$5.6 million. Soft currency transactions increased by 43.9 percent or U$$6.1 million to U$$20.0 million.

The banks' cambio trades increased by 9.3 percent to US$2,240.3 million or 96.6 percent of the entire cambio market volume. Also, the value of foreign exchange activities at the non-bank cambios increased by 9.5 percent to US$78.5 million against US$71.7 million at September 2015. The bank and non-banks cambios' share of the cambio market was 96.6 percent and 3.4 percent respectively.

Hard currency purchases and sales by the Bank of Guyana were US$330.8 million and US$317.9 million respectively. These Hard currency purchases and sales by the Bank of Guyana were US$330.8 million and US$317.9 million respectively. These receipts and payments totalled US$281.9 million and US$337.9 million respectively for the corresponding period in 2015. Export proceeds from the sale of gold and sugar were major contributors of the overall hard currency receipts. Fuel imports represented the largest category of total payments. The Bank of Guyana sold US$15.7 million to the commercial banks during the first three quarters of the year.

The debits and credits of authorized foreign currency accounts at the commercial banks were US$998.6 million and US$1,004.2 million respectively. Consequently, there was a net deposit of US$5.6 million from these accounts. The categories of mining and dredging, insurance & finance, rice, fishery, shipping and non-resident transfers account recorded the higher values. In the corresponding period last year, withdrawals and deposits of these accounts were US$858.5 million and US$870.4 million respectively.

CARICOM currency transactions increased by 43.9 percent. The combined value of trades amounted to US$20.0 million from US$13.9 million at end-September 2015. The market share for the Barbadian dollar was 46.2 percent, followed by the Trinidad & Tobago dollar with 40.5 percent while that of the Eastern Caribbean dollar was 13.0 percent.

The Guyana dollar relative to the United States dollar remained stable at G$206.50 at the end of September 2016. The Bank's weighted mid-rate, the official rate of transaction remained stable at G$206.50 during the third quarter of 2016. However, the un-weighted rate depreciated by 0.1 percent to G$205.75.

The average buying rate at the bank cambios was unchanged at G$206.67 when compared to December 2015. The selling rate, however, depreciated by 2 cent to G$209.51 from G$209.49 over the same period. At the non-bank cambios, the exchange rates were lower. The average buying rate depreciated from G$205.42 to G$206.21 while the selling rate appreciated to G$206.94 from G$208.68 at end-December 2015.

The spread between the banks and non-banks cambios' buying rates contracted to G$0.46 from G$1.25 at December 2015. Both the banks and non-banks cambios reported lower buying and selling rates during the review period. The difference in the selling rates of the bank and non-bank cambios was G$2.57 compared to G$0.45 for the corresponding period in 2015.

The banks' spread was higher than that of the non-banks. The spread at the banks was G$2.84, while the non-banks' spread was G$0.73. The total cambio market spread decreased to G$1.79 at the end of the review period from G$3.04 at the end of 2015.

PUBLIC FINANCE

Non-Financial Public Enterprises overall surplus increased to G$6,293 million from G$4,227 million in 2015 due to lower current and capital expenditures. Current expenditure decreased by 9.6 percent or G$7,603 million to G$71,677 million, on account of lower payment to creditors, materials & supplies and employment cost. Similarly, capital expenditure declined by 80.3 percent or G$4,628 million to G$1,134 million primarily as a result of a G$4,572 million reduction in capital spending by the Guyana Power and Light (GPL).

Current revenue declined by 8.5 percent or G$7,710 million to G$82,932 million. This reduction was on account of lower local sales, other income and export sales of G$49,323 million, G$10,559 million and G$8,952 million respectively.

The National Insurance Scheme's overall deficit narrowed to G$338 million, reflecting a 24.4 percent expansion in contributions by the employed and the self-employed.

PUBLIC DEBT

The stock of domestic debt increased by 5.1 percent to G$85,879 million from the end-December 2015 position, while external public and public guaranteed debt increased by 0.9 percent to US$1,154 million. The stock of domestic debt registered higher issuances of 91-, 182- and 364-day treasury bills and higher redemption of the 91- and 364-day treasury bills during the review period. The stock of debentures remained constant at G$3,898 million.

The marginal increase in the stock of external debt by 0.9 percent was on account of an increase in bilateral debt by 3.0

percent or US$11 million. This outcome reflected greater loan disbursements from China by 8.6 percent to US$135 million for project financing.

Domestic debt service payments increased by 10.2 percent to G$1,398 million when compared to the corresponding period last year. This was primarily due to a 10.5 percent increase in interest payments on treasury bills resulting from higher interest costs associated with the 91- and 364-day treasury bills by 27.6 percent and 10.9 percent respectively.

External debt service payments contracted by 51.9 percent to US$42 million due to the discontinuance of credit delivered under the PetroCaribe Agreement. As a percent of export revenue, external debt service payments accounted for 4.2 percent.

MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

Reserve money increased by 7.8 percent or G$10,747 million to G$148,947 million from its December 2015 level, reflecting a 46.5 percent or G$7,496 million expansion in net domestic assets. Net foreign assets also increased by 2.7 percent or G$1,735 million from its end-December 2015 level. This performance is reflected by a 19.9 percent increase in liabilities to commercial banks while currency in circulation fell by 2.2 percent.

Broad money grew by G$3,726 million due to increases in net foreign assets and net domestic credit while other items (net) declined. Net foreign assets and net domestic credit grew by 6.5 percent and 0.9 percent respectively while there was a decline of 33.4 percent in other items (net). The expansion in broad money was reflected in growths in both narrow-money quasi-money. and Narrow-money, consisting of currency in circulation, private sector demand deposits and cashiers cheques & acceptances, was higher by 1.4 percent on account of an increase in demand deposits while cashiers acceptances and currency in circulation contracted. Quasi-money, which consists of time and savings deposits, rose by 0.9 percent to reach G$206,102 million. Savings deposits increased by 1.2 percent while time deposits fell by 1.0 percent.

Total deposits by residents rose by 6.3 percent to G$365,495 million while that of non-residents increased by 8.9 percent to G$13,695 million. Private sector deposits, which accounted for 70.9 percent of total deposits by residents, were also higher by 3.4 percent.

Net domestic credit of the banking system increased by 0.9 percent to G$186,332 million from the December 2015 level of G$184,599 million. This growth was mainly on account of expansions in credit to the public and private sectors as well as higher net deposits of the non-bank financial institutions.

Private sector credit rose marginally by 0.4 percent compared with an increase of 2.4 percent one year ago. This position reflected the mixed demand for credit in various sectors. Loans to the other services, real estate mortgage and personal sectors rose by 10.1 percent, 3.2 percent and 2.6 percent respectively. However, credit to the mining, distribution and construction & engineering sectors fell by 12.9 percent, 8.0 percent and 7.0 percent respectively. Similarly, lending to the "other" private sector (which includes investments in local securities), manufacturing and agriculture sectors declined by 3.5 percent, 1.5 percent and 1.0 percent respectively.

The public sector (net) credit position declined by 59.5 percent or G$3,786 million from G$6,366 million at end-2015. Net credit to the central government grew by 24.8 percent or G$13,973 million to G$70,304 million in September 2016. The public enterprises remained a net depositor with an increase of 24.9 percent in net deposits while that of the other category of public sector. which includes local government and NIS, decreased by 6.1 percent.

The net foreign assets of the banking system expanded by 6.5 percent to US$921.1 million. This was due to a 14.8 percent and 2.7 percent increase in the net foreign assets of the commercial banks and the Bank of Guyana respectively. At the end of September 2016, the commercial banks' net foreign assets stood at US$314.2 million while that of the Bank of Guyana was US$606.9 million.

The overall liquidity of the banking system increased by 6.1 percent to G$121,852 million mainly on account of an increase in the level of excess reserves held at Bank of Guyana and balances held in foreign banks. However, the ratio of excess liquid assets to total liquid assets fell marginally to 34.4 percent at end-September 2016 from 34.7 percent at end-December 2015.

There were marginal movements in interest rates during the review period. The 91-day, 182-day and 364-day treasury bill yields declined to 1.85 percent, 1.71 percent and 2.20 percent from 1.92 percent, 1.81 percent and 2.38 percent respectively, at the end of the review period. This was as a result of the competitive bidding for treasury bills. The small savings rate remained stable at 1.26 percent while the weighted average time deposit rate rose by 5 basis points to reach 1.30 percent. Similarly, the prime lending rate of the commercial banks increased by 17 basis points to 13.00 percent while the weighted average lending rate declined by 16 basis points.

NON-BANK FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS (NBFIs)

The financial resources of the Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs), which includes depository and non-depository financial institutions, increased marginally by 0.6 percent to G$204,726 million at end-September 2016. The sector's share of total assets in the financial sector declined marginally from 31.5 percent to 30.5 percent.

The increase in the NBFIs' assets was due to an 11.4 percent (or G$905 million) and 5.5 percent (or G$1,681 million) increase in other deposits and pension funds respectively. Insurance premiums expanded by 8.2 percent or G$336 million while foreign liabilities declined by 6.1 percent or G$1,004 million. Other liabilities also decreased, albeit marginally, by 0.1 percent or G$95 million.

Investments by the NBFIs were held mainly in the banking and public sectors during the period under review. Investments in the banking system and Government Guyana's securities increased by 8.4 percent (G$2,277 million) and 2.9 percent (G$210 million) respectively. Private sector which represented 53.4 investments. percent of total assets, contracted by 1.6 percent (G$1,762 million). Other assets grew by 2.4 percent (G$683 million) while claims on the foreign sector declined by 0.5 percent (G$139 million).

FINANCIAL STABILITY ASSESSMENT

At the end of the third quarter of 2016, the financial system remained sound with the Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) being adequately capitalised, highly liquid and profitable. Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) continued to exceed the prudential 8.0 percent benchmark. Asset quality remained acceptable, in spite of the rise in non-performing loans when compared with the third quarter of 2015.

Capital

The average capital adequacy ratio (CAR) for the LDFIs was 27.20 percent at end-September 2016, a 163 basis points improvement over the 25.57 percent recorded at end-September 2015. The improved ratio resulted from a 9.05 percent

($5,227 million) growth in qualifying capital, along with the 2.51 percent ($5,667 million) growth in risk-weighted assets.

Asset Quality

Non-performing loans of the LDFIs as a share of total loans were 11.3 percent during the review period, compared with 9.4 percent recorded for the 2015 corresponding period. The foregoing change resulted largely from the 24.6 percent deterioration in non-performing loans from six of the eight LDFIs. The ratio of provision for loan losses to nonperforming loans moved to 41.4 percent at the end of September 2016 from the 38.5 percent at the end of September 2015, mainly due to the foregoing increase in nonperforming loans.

NPLs remained concentrated in the business enterprises sector at 76.2 percent of the LDFI's aggregate NPLs and within that sector were further concentrated in the services and manufacture sub-sectors which held 46.2 percent and 27.2 percent respectively. NPLs in the services subsector represented 35.2 percent of the LDFIs' aggregate NPLs, marginally lower than the 36.5 percent recorded at end-September 2015.

Exposure to the top twenty borrowers amounted to G$58.7 billion, 3.8 percent above the end-September 2015 level. Three of the eight LDFIs were responsible for the increased exposure to the industry's top twenty borrowers. The ratio of exposure to the top twenty borrowers to total exposure moved was 14.7 percent, down from 15.1 percent at the end of September 2015.

Earnings

For the quarter ended September 30, 2016, aggregate operating income of the LDFIs grew 1.2 percent over the corresponding period last year to reach G$27.5 billion. This marginal growth was primarily attributed to increases in interest income of 2.6 percent while all other income sources showed decreases below the previous year's level.

The LDFIs' aggregate operating expenses expanded by 13.0 percent to G$15.6 billion, resulting from significant increases of 101.6 percent, 9.9 percent and 7.5 percent in provision for loan losses, other operating expenses and interest expense respectively. The rise in provision for loan losses resulted mainly from increases by seven LDFIs ranging from 20.2 percent (BNS) to 192 percent (GBTI). Other operating expense for five LDFIs had increases ranging from 2.6 percent (HIHT) to 31.8 percent (RBGL) and resulted in higher aggregate expenses this year.

Interest income was 2.6 percent above the end-September 2015 level, while interest expense rose 12.4 percent for the same comparative period.

Net income before tax fell 10.9 percent from the end-September 2015 level to G$11.9 billion. Consequently, net income after tax reflected a 12.4 percent falloff, to G$8.5 billion at end-September 2016. Five LDFIs reflected lower post tax results.

Liquidity

The average level of liquid assets held by the LDFIs was G$159.5 billion, 6.0 percent above the average level recorded for the corresponding period last year. This growth was due mainly to increases in deposits with BOG, net balances due from LDFIs in Guyana, and marketable obligations.

MONETARY POLICY

Bank of Guyana's monetary policy continued to focus on the attainment of price stability and provision of adequate level of liquidity for credit expansion and economic growth. The Bank seeks to allow the expansion of broad money along a path consistent with projections for output and inflation. Thus, weekly targets for broad money are translated into targets for base money using the money multiplier. To achieve these weekly base money targets, the Bank focuses on the effective management of excess liquidity in the financial system through its Open Market Operations (OMOs).

During the review period, reserve money grew by G$10,747 million compared with an increase of G$8,380 million for the corresponding period in 2015. There were twenty-nine (29) issues of treasury bills amounting to G$82,989 million while redemptions amounted to G$78,785 million. Treasury bills were issued when reserve money exceeded the targeted levels and was deemed likely to adversely affect the stability of the major financial indicators.

The inter-bank market activities, which also provide an indication of the total liquidity condition of the financial system, had 36 trades during the review period. The value of funds traded on the market amounted to G$38.1 billion, which was 74.1 percent or G$108.9 billion less than the corresponding period in 2015.

This obligation was discharged through the Currency Division of the Operations Department. The total supply of currency in 2016 registered an increase of 1.6 percent over 2015. The increase was a result of more notes purchased when compared to 2015.

Notes

The total value of currency notes in circulation (including notes held in the vaults of commercial banks) at the end of the third quarter of 2016 amounted to G$78.6 billion, an increase of 11.6 percent compared with a circulation of G$70.4 billion in 2015. The G$500 note fell from 2.2 percent to 1.6 percent, the G$100 note fell to 2.0 percent from 2.1 percent, the G$50 note, which was introduced in May of 2016, accounted for 0.1 percent and the G$20 fell to 0.8 percent.

The policy of ensuring that only acceptable quality notes are in circulation continued. This was achieved by regular withdrawals of mutilated, defaced or otherwise poor quality notes and replacing them with new notes. Mutilated, defaced and poor quality notes amounting to G$228.3 million were submitted for replacement at the end of the third quarter 2016 compared with G$297.2 million for the same period in 2015.

Coins

Coins issued by the Bank amounted to G$989.8 million at the end of the third quarter of 2016, an increase of 4.6 percent above the G$945.9 million in 2015. An increase was recorded in the value of the HVT which amounted to G$508 billion and the LVT also rose to G$268 billion at the end of the third quarter of 2016. In the current period, the shares of HVT in total value of transactions fell to 65.5 percent while the share of LVT rose to 34.5 percent. The average value of HVT and LVT rose by 2.7 percent and 10.6 percent respectively.

The United Kingdom was resilient in the wake of BREXIT and experienced growth of 1.8 percent. The US economy recorded 1.6 percent growth on account of an improved housing market and increased consumption. Growth in emerging market was mixed while that of developing countries strengthened slightly. Together, these countries accounted for over three quarters of global growth.

Notwithstanding, unemployment in the developed countries was 7.0 percent while developing emerging and economies averaged 14 percent. Global inflation remained subdued on account of low commodity prices. Global developments such BREXIT geopolitical and uncertainty influenced a continuation of easy monetary policy for a longer period.

Advanced Economies

Growth in the advanced economies was 1.6 percent, as industralised countries experienced softer than expected economic activities. The Euro Area grew at a slightly slower pace at 1.7 percent. Growth was by weakened hampered investor's confidence, and uncertainty following the BREXIT vote. However, low oil prices, expansion, modest fiscal and easy monetary policies continued to sustain positive growth in the Euro Area. Growth in Germany was robust at 1.7 percent followed by France at 1.3 percent while Spain grew by 3.2 percent.

The U.S economy grew slower at 1.6 percent due to prolonged inventory adjustment and weak investment climate in the third quarter. However, the US housing market continued to improve while remained consumer spending robust supported by the accommodative fiscal and monetary policy. The Canadian economy grew stronger than expected at 1.2 percent due to increase exports as a result of a weakened Canadian dollar.

Inflation showed a slight increase in advanced economies during the review period. The US consumer price index increased to 1.2 percent. The Euro Area recorded 0.3 percent inflation from the zero rate recorded last year. The depreciation of the Pound Sterling pushed inflation up to 0.7 percent in the United Kingdom.

Advanced economies labour markets showed signs of improvement with a reduction in unemployment. unemployment declined to 4.6 percent. The Euro Area recorded a decline unemployment by 0.9 percent. Japan's unemployment was around 3.2 percent. Germany's unemployment was 4.3 percent while France was 9.8 percent.

Emerging Economies

Growth in the emerging economies was mixed with China recorded robust, albeit slower, growth of 6.6 percent due mainly to the rebalancing of economic activities. The Indian economy grew by 7.5 percent as a result of lower oil prices, positive policy actions, and improved investor confidence. Mexico grew by 4.1 percent due to increased exports of intermediary goods to the global supply chain. Brazil experienced negative growth of 3.3 percent due to low oil prices.

Economic activities increased in the large emerging economies with Brazil and Russia being expected to exit their current recession. FDI flows also increased in emerging economies. However, they continued to be affected by declining international trade and lower commodity prices.

Developing Economies

Developing countries grew by 4.3 percent due to stronger economic performance by developing countries in Asia which recorded growth of 6.5 percent. The Sub-Saharan African Region grew slowly at 1.0 percent while Latin America and the Caribbean experienced a narrower negative growth rate of 0.4 percent.

The prices of agricultural commodities stabilized during the period under review. However, unemployment continued to be high due to low FDI flows and the past decline in commodity prices.

Caribbean Economies

The Caribbean economies experienced sluggish growth. The commodity based countries of Trinidad & Tobago and Suriname recorded negative growth due to lower energy prices. Guyana's economic growth, although positive, was slower. The outturn was largely due to high gold output. The tourist based economies such as Barbados and the OECS countries continued to be affected by tourist arrivals which remained flat.

Unemployment remained high in most Caribbean economies reaching 10 percent in Trinidad & Tobago. Guyana's unemployment stood at 8.0 percent while Barbados recorded 11.9 percent. OECS countries' unemployment was 11 percent.

Barbados, Belize and ECCU continued their policy of fixed exchange rate vis-à-vis the US dollar. The Guyana dollar was stable at G$206.50. The Trinidad & Tobago dollar was TT$6.70 vis-à-vis the US dollar while the Jamaican dollar stabilized at J$127.00.

Commodity Prices

Commodities showed slight improvement in their prices in the third quarter of 2016. Gold was US$1,325 per oz at end of September 2016. Rice price increased to US$384 per metric tonne compared to US$356 at the end of 2015. Sugar price averaged around US$0.22 per pound an increase of 7 cents from the end of 2015 price. Oil price was US$46.20 per barrel compared to US$37.72 at the end of 2015. However, commodity prices remained below the pre-crisis level.

3. OUTLOOK FOR END-DECEMBER 2016

Global growth is projected to be slightly lower in 2016 as the global economy adjusts to new shocks from BREXIT and declining international trade. However, the prospect of improved performance from emerging economies - such as India and the rebalancing of China, will sustain economic momentum for the future. Further, growth in developing countries is expected to remain robust as agriculture commodity prices begin to recover. Despite downside risks such as uncertainty from BREXIT and the fragile performance of advanced economies remain; monetary policy will remain accommodative in an effort to sustain global growth.

Guyana's economy is projected to expand by 2.6 percent at the end of 2016. The growth is expected to be largely driven by the performance of the mining sector. Inflation is projected at 1.2 percent on account of moderate increase in food and fuel prices.

The overall balance of payments deficit is expected to contract from a lower current account deficit and a large capital account surplus. The current account deficit is expected to improve from a smaller merchandise trade deficit due to higher export receipts. The capital account is projected to register an increased surplus from flows to the public sector in the form of loans and grants and to the private sector through foreign direct investments.

The Guyana dollar is expected to be relatively stable against the US dollar for the remainder of 2016. Bank of Guyana's receipts are projected at US$470.3 million while total payments are estimated at US$433.22 million. The main outflows will be fuel imported which is projected at US$283.2 million followed by debt servicing at US$58.2 million.

Non-Financial Public Enterprises overall balance is expected to remain in a surplus resulting from lower current expenditure. This outcome will cause a decrease in the current account surplus. The capital account is expected to record a lower deficit due to decreased spending. This position will result in an external and domestic saving.

The stock of domestic debt is projected to increase on account of higher issuance of treasury bills to sterilize excess liquidity within the financial system, while external debt stock is expected to be higher due to the increase in bilateral debt.

Domestic debt service is estimated to increase as a result of higher interest payments for the 91- and 364-day treasury bills spurred by higher issuance and yield for these debt securities, while external debt service payments are estimated to decline on account of a decrease in principal payments to bilateral creditors, mainly Venezuela.

Bank of Guyana continues to manage the expansion in base money through its Open Market Operations and seeks to maintain low inflation. The Bank will also ensure that credit to the private sector is encouraged to facilitate growth in the economy. \Box

See note under Private Sector for Table 2.1(a) above.

TABLE 2.14: Commercial Banks: Liquid Assets

The liquid assets comprise Bank of Guyana notes and coins, foreign currency held by banks, (special interest earning) deposits held at the Bank of Guyana (BOG), balances due from other Commercial Banks - both local and foreign, Government of Guyana Treasury Bills. The special reserves deposits (SRDs) established in 1969, discontinued in 1994 as the Bank of Guyana sought to develop its capacity to manage the excess reserves of the bank more effectively. Approximately, 75-80 per cent of the SRDs were absorbed through a sale of three year, variable rate, and fixed date debenture to the Commercial Banks.

Prior to March 1989, the legally required level of liquid assets to be held by the Commercial Banks against their deposit liabilities was calculated as the sum of 20 percent of demand liabilities and 15 percent of time liabilities. During the period March 31, 1989 to May 15, 1991 the determination of the required liquid assets held by the banks was based on actual holdings on specified dates. Accordingly, from March 31, 1989 to June 30, 1990 required liquid assets were stipulated as the actual holdings on March 15, 1989. Between July 30, 1990 and February 19, 1991 the required liquid assets was based on the assets held by the banks on September 30, 1989. Further, between February 20, 1991 and May 14, 1991 the required balances were set as at the end of July 30, 1990.

With effect from May 15, 1991, however, the basis for calculating required liquid assets was changed to 25 percent of demand liabilities and 20 percent of time liabilities. Further, amendments to the liquid asset requirements became effective on 26th, October 1998. The liquid assets base period has been redefined as the Monday to Friday workweek immediately preceding the liquid asset maintenance period. The liquid asset requirement is determined by applying the prescribed percentages to the weekly average of the daily liabilities balances at the close of business of each of the five days of the liquid asset base period. Figures for Treasury Bills were reclassified from December 2000 to December 2002.

TABLE 2.15: Commercial Banks: Minimum Reserve Requirements

Prior to May 16, 1991, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were calculated as 6 percent of demand liabilities and 4 percent of time liabilities. Their percentages were changed with effect from May 16, 1991, to 11 percent of demand liabilities and 9 percent of time liabilities. Commencing April 7, 1994, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were again revised to the sum of 16 percent of demand liabilities and 14 percent of time liabilities.

On June 29, 1998, in addition to Commercial Banks, other licensed Financial Institutions were required to maintain balances with the Central Bank against their deposits and other liabilities. Further, the required reserve period has been changed on Monday to Friday workweek instead of the Wednesday to Thursday week used previously. The required reserve period has been referred to as the reserve base period. The week following the current reserve base period, i.e. the reserve maintenance period is also based on the Monday to Friday workweek. The deposits and other liabilities to which the required reserve ratio(s) are applied are referred to as the reserve base. During the reserve maintenance period, all licensed Financial Institutions subject to reserve requirement are required to maintain reserves against the relevant deposit and other liabilities.

Effective February 1, 1999, the required reserve ratio applicable to all liabilities of licensed Financial Institutions was lowered to twelve per cent (12 %). The first reserve base period for which the revised requirements became relevant was the 1st to 5th February 1999 while the reserve maintenance period was the 8th to 12th February 1999. However, reserve balances for the Non-Bank licensed Financial Institutions are excluded from table 2.15.
