

REVISED $100 BANKNOTE

1. Large numerals

2. Watermark

When the banknote is held up to the light, an image of a macaw and the map of Guyana can be seen.

3. Intaglio printing

The numerals at the lower part of the note should feel raised when touched.

4. See-through feature

When the banknote is held up to the light, a complete design can be seen as the image on the front lines up perfectly with the image on the back.

5. New colours have been introduced to the front and reverse of the banknote.

6. New wide security thread

The complete thread is visible when held up to the light and the legend “Bank of Guyana” can be seen. The thread on the $100 is silver.
