THE GUYANA ECONOMY

1. SUMMARY

Global economic growth strengthened to 3.2 percent in the first half of 2014. This was driven by stronger growth impetus of 2.3 percent from the Advanced Countries. Emerging Economies experienced steady but slower growth of 4.0 percent due to structural bottlenecks in infrastructure, labour markets and investments. Developing Countries experienced stable growth on account of solid domestic demand, higher production and exports as commodity prices remained favourable. The Latin America and Caribbean Region recorded slower growth of 2.5 percent due to a decline in investment and weaknesses in domestic and external demands. Global inflation remained subdued at 2.5 percent on account of relatively low food and fuel prices while global unemployment remained high and relatively unchanged as the effects from the financial crisis continued to weigh on the labour markets of many countries.

Guyana recorded real economic growth of 3.2 percent as it continued to benefit from favourable commodity prices. Growth was driven by all the major economic sectors, except for the mining sector. The agriculture sector experienced outstanding performances in the sugar, rice and forestry sub-sectors due mainly to favourable international commodity prices and weather conditions. The fishing sub-sector reported a decline on account of overfishing and piracy in offshore waters. The services sector recorded strong contributions from the construction, wholesale & retail trade, information & communications, financial & insurance and other services industries. The manufacturing sector was bolstered from value added in rice and sugar as well as increases in pharmaceuticals and alcoholic beverages. However, the mining and quarrying sector's output contracted from lower gold and bauxite production largely due to volatile international metal prices. Consumer prices were relatively flat as the Urban Consumer Price Index recorded a marginal decline of 0.4 percent due to depressed food prices.

The overall balance of payments deficit narrowed to US$93.0 million from US$145.6 million a year ago due to a contraction of the current account deficit since the capital account surplus was lower. The narrowing of the current account deficit was on account of higher current transfers, lower net service payments as well as a decline in the merchandise trade deficit. The lower capital account surplus was due mainly to increased holdings of commercial banks' net foreign assets. The overall deficit was financed by a drawdown on the gross foreign reserves of the Bank which amounted to US$670.5 million or 3.9 months of import cover.

Transactions on the foreign exchange market grew marginally by 1.7 percent to US$3,154.8 million. The licensed bank and non-bank cambios were responsible for 47.2 percent of total market turnover. The Bank of Guyana's hard currency transactions as well as foreign currency accounts accounted for 52.6 percent of total volume. The Bank sold US$15.5 million to the cambios to offset seasonal shortages. High net sales caused the Guyana dollar to depreciate by 0.12 percent against the United States dollar from its December 2013 position of G$206.25 to G$206.50.

The overall financial operations of the public sector recorded a smaller surplus due to a lower Central Government surplus as the Non-Financial Public Enterprises' deficit narrowed. The former was on account of a lower current account surplus and a larger capital account deficit, while the latter was on account of higher current receipts and lower capital expenditure.

The stock of domestic debt and external debt decreased by 9.9 percent and 1.7 percent respectively from the end-June 2013 levels. The former was attributed to a contraction in the stock of outstanding government treasury bills, while the latter was due to reduced disbursements from bilateral credit delivered under the PetroCaribe Initiative. Domestic debt service payments decreased as a result of lower interest costs for treasury bills. Conversely, external debt service payments increased on account of higher principal and interest payments to bilateral and multilateral creditors.

Monetary aggregates of reserve money and broad money contracted by 5.1 percent and 0.1 percent respectively. The former was attributed to decreases in both net domestic assets and net foreign assets while the latter reflected a reduction in net foreign assets and other items (net). Total deposits were lower while net domestic credit by the banking system increased on account of an expansion in public and private sector credit. Commercial banks' interest rates trended downwards while interest rate spreads remained relatively high. The non-bank financial institutions were active in mobilizing resources which translated to a 7.9 percent increase in the extension of credit to the private sector.

The Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) reported higher levels of capital and profits for the first half of 2014. The Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) when compared with end-June 2013 remained well above the prudential benchmark of 8.0 percent. The stock of non-performing loans deteriorated from the end-June and end-December 2013 levels. The LDFIs' 21.8 percent rise in non-performing loans reduced the ratio of reserves against non-performing loans to 65.5 percent, down from 76.4 percent at end-June 2013.

The conduct of monetary policy remained focused on price stability, ensuring adequate level of liquidity is in the system and creating an enabling environment for credit and economic growth. The Bank used treasury bills as the main instrument in the primary open market operations for the effective management of liquidity. Purchases and sales of foreign exchange by the Bank were also used to control liquidity. There was a G$11.5 billion net redemption of treasury bills. The Bank has facilitated efficient intermediation through the issuance of notes and coins as well as promotion of an enhanced payments system operation.

Global growth is projected to rise to 3.6 percent at the end of 2014 due mainly to the recovery in Advanced Countries which are still experiencing downside risks that accommodative monetary policy will have to mitigate. Emerging Markets and Developing Countries are expected to benefit from increased domestic and external demands. Global inflation is expected to remain low on account of weaker domestic demand in several Emerging Economies and falling commodity prices. Unemployment will continue to be high due to the effects of the financial crisis on many countries' labour markets. The Guyanese economy is projected to grow by 4.5 percent while the rate of inflation is estimated at 3.0 percent on account of rising fuel and food prices. The exchange rate is expected to remain relatively stable as a result of a net supply of foreign exchange in the system. The Bank will continue to manage the liquidity level in the banking system to support the efforts in promoting and sustaining price and financial sector stability. □

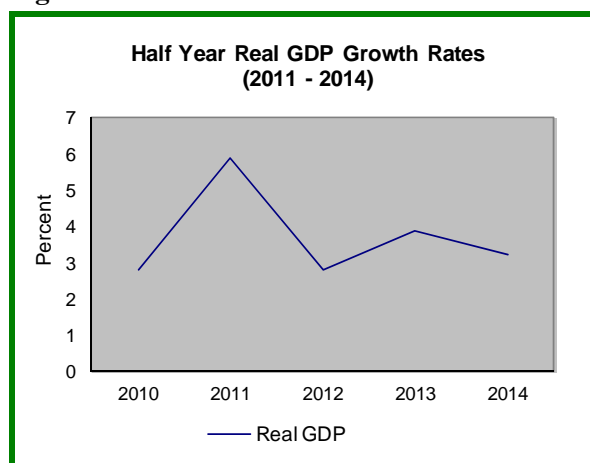

2. PRODUCTION, EMPLOYMENT, INCOME AND INFLATION

Guyana recorded real economic growth of 3.2 percent as it continued to benefit from favourable commodity prices. Growth was driven by all the major economic sectors, except for the mining sector. The agriculture sector experienced outstanding performances in the sugar, rice and forestry sub-sectors due mainly to favourable international commodity prices and weather conditions. The fishing sub-sector reported a decline on account of overfishing and piracy in offshore waters. The services sector recorded strong contributions from the construction, wholesale & retail trade, information & communications, financial & insurance and other services industries. The manufacturing sector was bolstered from value added in rice and sugar as well as increases in pharmaceuticals and alcoholic beverages. However, the mining and quarrying sector's output contracted from lower gold and bauxite production largely due to volatile international metal prices. Consumer prices were relatively flat as the Urban Consumer Price Index recorded a marginal decline of 0.4 percent due to depressed food prices.

GROSS DOMESTIC PRODUCT (GDP)

Real GDP slowed to 3.2 percent at end-June 2014, compared with the revised 3.9 percent growth at end-June-2013. This performance reflected lower outturn from the mining and quarrying sector.

Agriculture

The agriculture sector recorded a growth of 10.9 percent compared with 4.0 percent for the same period last year. This performance was attributed to favourable external demand and weather conditions that led to higher sugar, rice and logs output. The fishing sub-sector had an adverse impact due to lower output for fish and shrimp from overfishing and piracy.

Sugar

Sugar output was 79,995 tonnes, 66.5 percent higher than the corresponding period last year and represented 37.1 percent of the 215,910 tonnes targeted for 2014. The supply of better quality cane, fewer industrial unrest and good weather conditions contributed to the higher output.

Plywood (cu. mt.)	6,287	6,629	10,955

Rice

Rice output was 312,283 tonnes, 18.3 percent more than the corresponding June-2013 level and represented 52.8 percent of the 591,892 tonnes revised target for 2014. This increase was attributed to favourable external demand and weather conditions as well as better seed varieties and additional land under cultivation.

Fishing and Livestock

The fishing sub-sector recorded lower output of 25.5 percent compared with an 8.8 percent decline in the corresponding period last year. This poor performance was on account of a decline in fish and shrimp catches by 27.7 percent and 21.8 percent respectively caused by overfishing and piracy in offshore waters.

Output in the livestock industry increased by 1.0 percent compared with 1.9 percent at end-June 2013. This outcome was due to an 11.7 percent growth in egg production from an additional number of egg layer hens. Output of pork and mutton declined by 10.5 percent and 63.2 percent respectively because of relatively lower demand.

Forestry

Forestry activities improved by 57.7 percent on account of favourable external demand and weather conditions. Total output of logs increased by 77.4 percent, reflecting higher production of greenheart and other species logs by 125.0 percent and 69.7 percent respectively. Roundwood and plywood output increased by 81.3 percent and 65.3 percent respectively while sawnwood decreased by 13.1 percent.

Mining and Quarrying

The mining and quarrying sector contracted by 13.2 percent compared with 17.9 percent expansion for the same period in 2013. This outcome was on account of relatively less favourable gold and bauxite prices.

Bauxite

Output of bauxite declined by 9.0 percent and represented 47.8 percent of the 1,833,169 tonnes targeted for the year. Metal grade bauxite (MAZ) fell by 14.3 percent while chemical grade bauxite (CGB) and refractory grade bauxite (RASC) increased by 51.7 percent and 7.9 percent respectively.

Gold and Diamonds

Total gold declaration decreased by 17.2 percent to 194,246 troy ounces and was 43.2 percent of the revised 450,000 troy ounces targeted for the year. This outcome was partly due to relatively lower prices when compared with that of the corresponding period in 2013.

Total diamond declaration decreased by 13.1 percent to 26,647 carats and was due to lower investments in production.

Manufacturing

The manufacturing sector grew by 11.2 percent compared with 5.9 percent for the same period last year. The sector's growth was mainly on account of increased value added in rice and sugar by 18.3 percent and 66.5 percent respectively.

Production of other manufacturing goods experienced increases in increases in tablets, oxygen, and stockfeed by 17.4 percent, 15.7 percent and 8.2 percent respectively as well as both liquid pharmaceuticals and alcoholic beverages by 7.1 percent. Conversely, non-alcoholic beverages, malta and flour decreased by 11.4 percent, 3.4 percent and 2.1 percent respectively. Electricity generation declined marginally by 0.8 percent relative to the 5.6 percent increase at end-June 2013.

Paints ('000 litres)	1,208	1,181	1,171
Electricity ('000 MWH)	332	351	348

Services

The services sector grew by 3.0 percent largely on account of a 16.8 percent growth in construction activities in the public and private sectors. The sector's outturn also benefitted from increased activities in information and communications by 3.5 percent, education by 2.4 percent, financial & insurance by 2.0 percent, real estate by 2.3 percent and wholesale and retail trade by 6.0 percent as well as the 'other services' sub-sector by 3.7 percent. There was a decrease in activities in transportation & storage and electricity & water by 9.5 percent and 4.2 percent respectively.

EMPLOYMENT, INCOME & INFLATION

Public Sector Employment

Total public sector employment increased by 1.0 percent from December 2013 to June-2014. This position reflected a 3.3 percent expansion of employment within the core civil services as employment in public corporations declined by 0.7 percent on account of the 1.5 percent reduction in Guyana Sugar Corporation's (GUYSUCO's) recruitment.

Labour unrest, which was confined to GUYSUCO, registered a decline with the number of work stoppages decreasing by 17.7 percent to 79 from 96. Man-days lost were higher at 12,246 from 12,038 at end-June 2013. Wages lost were also higher at G$36.8 million, an increase of 9.2 percent compared with the corresponding period last year.

Private Sector Employment

Preliminary estimates indicated improvement in private sector employment especially in the construction, forestry and other services sectors.

Income

Public sector minimum wage was high at G$39,540 per month. Central Government employment cost as a percentage of GDP remained unchanged at 3.0 percent.

Private sector employees' wages were higher due to the new minimum wage policy implemented in 2013. However, there was a decrease in interest paid to holders of government securities of 32.5 percent compared with the decline of 42.2 percent in the corresponding period last year. Further, interest paid to holders of bank deposits decreased by 2.0 percent compared with a 13.5 percent decrease during the same period in 2013.

Inflation

Consumer prices measured by the Urban Consumer Price Index (CPI) were relatively flat with a decline of 0.4 percent at end-June 2014 compared with a 0.2 percent increase at end-June 2013. The outturn was mainly due to the marginal decline in the price of food by 0.6 percent as well as that of transport & communication and furniture by 1.6 percent and 0.4 percent respectively. This was partly offset from increases in the categories of footwear & repairs and clothing by 3.2 percent and 0.5 percent respectively. There were also price increases in medical care & health services, miscellaneous goods and recreational & culture services by 1.1 percent, 2.0 percent and 0.1 percent respectively.

The overall decline in the food price index reflected mainly the fall in the prices of vegetables & vegetable products, condiment & spices and milk & milk products by 14.3 percent, 7.7 percent and 2.0 percent respectively while there were increases in the prices mainly of fruits & fruit products and meat, fish & eggs by 4.1 percent and 3.5 percent respectively.

Outlook

The economy is projected to grow by 4.5 percent in 2014 with the agriculture, manufacturing and services sectors as the major drivers of growth. The agriculture sector is expected to benefit from improved output in the sugar, rice and forestry industries while the expansion in the manufacturing sector will come from the value added in the sugar and rice industries as well as high output in pharmaceuticals and alcoholic beverages. The services sector will benefit from increases in construction, information & communications and financial services. Inflation is targeted at 3.0 percent on account of on account of rising fuel and food prices.

3. INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND BALANCE OF PAYMENTS

The overall balance of payments deficit narrowed to US$93.0 million from US$145.6 million a year ago due to a contraction of the current account deficit since the capital account surplus was lower. The narrowing of the current account deficit was on account of higher current transfers, lower net service payments as well as a decline in the merchandise trade deficit. The lower capital account surplus was due mainly to increased holdings of commercial banks' net foreign assets. The overall deficit was financed by a drawdown on the gross foreign reserves of the Bank of Guyana which amounted to US$670.5 million or 3.9 months of import cover.

CURRENT ACCOUNT

The current account deficit declined by 23.7 percent or US$64.0 million to US$205.5 million. The decline was on account of higher current transfers, lower net service payments as well as a lower merchandise trade deficit.

Merchandise Trade

The merchandise trade deficit narrowed by 2.3 percent or US$7.2 million to US$304.4 million from US$311.6 million at end-June 2013. This decline was due to a US$68.2 million reduction in imports which more than offset a US$61.4 million contraction in export receipts.

Exports

Total export receipts amounted to US$534.6 million, 10.2 percent less than the US$595.6 million recorded at end-June 2013. This downturn was largely on account of lower earnings from gold, "other" exports and bauxite, as shown in Tables VI and VII.

Sugar

Sugar export earnings amounted to US$34.4 million, 26.4 percent or US$7.2 million above the level in 2013 due to an increase in the volume exported despite a decline in the export price for the commodity. Export volume increased by 80.3 percent or 31,031 metric tonnes from 38,656 metric tonnes to 69,687 metric tonnes. The average export price for sugar declined by 29.9 percent to US$494.2 per metric tonne.

Rice

Rice export earnings amounted to US$95.6 million, 14.9 percent or US$12.4 million above the level in 2013 due to an increase in volume exported despite a decline in export price for the commodity. Export volume increased by 30.7 percent or 43,717 metric tonnes from 142,283 metric tonnes to 186,000 metric tonnes. The average export price declined by 12.1 percent to US$514.2 per metric tonne.

Bauxite export receipts amounted to US$66.9 million, 2.9 percent or US$2.0 million below the value for the corresponding period in 2013. This performance was mainly due to a decline of 58,760 metric tonnes in the volume exported. The average export price increased by 3.7 percent from US$75.3 to US$78.1 per metric tonne.

Gold

Gold export receipts amounted to US$226.7 million, 24.6 percent or US$74.1 million less than the June 2013 level due to lower export volumes and prices. Export volume declined by 10.1 percent to 182,411 ounces due to lower declarations while the average export price per ounce of gold fell by 16.1 percent to

US$1,242.8 million.

Timber

Timber export receipts were US$21.3 million, 31.3 percent above the value for the corresponding period in 2013 due to significantly higher export volume. Export volume was 54.2 percent higher at 70,442 cubic metres. Earnings from other timber exports increased by US$5.1 million or 33.0 percent while plywood exports increased marginally by 1.1 percent.

Other Exports

Total earnings from all “other exports” (non-traditional exports including re-exports) were US$89.7 million, 9.5 percent less than the value for the same period last year. This downturn was mainly on account of decreases in the subcategories of fish and shrimps, garments and clothing, diamonds, pharmaceuticals, beverages and re-exports. The other subcategories of ‘other exports’ such as fruits & vegetables, prepared foods, rum and other spirits, wood products, “others”, and molasses, recorded higher earnings as shown in Table VII.

Imports

The value of merchandise imports decreased by 7.5 percent or US$68.2 million to US$839.0 million. This downturn was mainly on account of lower imports of consumption, intermediate, and capital goods as shown in Table VIII.

Imports in the consumption goods sub-category amounted to US$186.9 million, 7.2 percent or US$14.5 million less than the 2013 corresponding level. All items within this subcategory decreased, with the most notable being a decline in other non-durable goods, and other durable goods of US$5.8 million and US$2.8 million respectively.

In the intermediate goods sub-category, imports declined by 3.3 percent or US$16.1 million to US$476.1 million. This position was mainly due to declines in chemicals, parts and accessories, and textiles and clothing by US$20.5 million, US$8.9 million, and US$0.1 million respectively. However, fuel & lubricants, other intermediate goods and food for intermediate use recorded increases of US$6.9 million, US$3.6 million and US$2.9 million respectively.

Imports in the sub-category of capital goods declined by 17.7 percent or US$37.0 million to US$171.9 million. Nearly all types of capital goods recorded a decline, with the most notable being a US$17.1 million reduction in agricultural machinery. However, imports for mining machinery saw an increase of US$3.6 million as shown in Table VIII.

Services and Unrequited Transfers

Net payments for services amounted to US$115.3 million from US$126.3 million for the corresponding period in 2013. This upturn was due to a 16.8 percent or US$22.4 million decline in net payments for non-factor services as a result of lower net payments for commercial services, which fell by US$16.3 million.

Factor services recorded a net outflow of US$4.4 million from a net inflow of US$6.9 million one year ago. This performance was mainly on account of larger outflows of direct investment income, portfolio investment income, as well as other investment income.

Net current transfers rose by 27.1 percent to

US$214.3 million. This increase was due to higher inflows to the private sector in the form of remittances from bank accounts of US$36.9 million. Net receipts from bank accounts increased by 34.7 percent or US$31.3 million to US$121.4 million. The main sources of outflows were workers' remittances and remittances to bank accounts abroad, which amounted to US$34.3 million and US$13.6 million respectively.

CAPITAL ACCOUNT

The capital account registered a smaller surplus of US$108.0 million from the US$149.0 million recorded at the end of June 2013. This decline was mainly due to increased holdings of net foreign assets by commercial banks.

Foreign direct investment increased by 10.7 percent or US$11.7 million from US$109.3 million to US$121.0 million. Short-term private capital recorded a net outflow of US$26.3 million compared to a net inflow of US$35.7 million for the corresponding period in June 2013. This reflected an increase in commercial banks' accumulation of foreign assets during the reporting period. Capital grants decreased by US$1.7 million to US$1.0 million from US$2.7 million in the previous year. Loans disbursed to the non-financial public sector decreased by US$1.0 million to US$7.5 million from US$8.6 million one year ago. PetroCaribe financing amounted to US$60.6 million which was remitted for holding and investment purposes.

Overall Balance and Financing

The surplus on the capital account of US$108.0 million was inadequate to offset the deficit on the current account of US$205.9 million, resulting in an overall deficit of US$93.0 million. The deficit was financed mainly by the gross foreign reserves of the Bank, which stood at US$670.5 million and was equivalent to 3.9 months of import cover at end June, 2014.

Outlook

The overall balance of payments is expected to record a lower deficit of US$47.6 million for 2014 due to an expansion of the capital account's surplus from higher bilateral and multilateral inflows as well as foreign direct investment. The current account deficit is projected to expand on account of a higher import bill and lower export earnings. □

4. FOREIGN EXCHANGE MARKET DEVELOPMENTS

Transactions on the foreign exchange market grew marginally by 1.7 percent to US$3,154.8 million. The licensed bank and non-bank cambios were responsible for 47.2 percent of total market turnover. The Bank of Guyana's hard currency transactions as well as foreign currency accounts accounted for 52.6 percent of total volume. The Bank sold US$15.5 million to the cambios to offset seasonal shortages. High net sales caused the Guyana dollar to depreciate by 0.12 percent against the United States dollar from its December 2013 position of G$206.25 to G$206.50.

Overall Market Volumes

The overall volume of foreign currency transactions was US$3,154.8 million, US$52.2 million or 1.7 percent more than one year ago. Aggregated purchases and sales were US$1,547.6 million and US$1,607.2 million respectively. Net sales amounted to US$59.6 million. Transactions processed at the cambios were valued at US$1,487.8 million, representing 47.2 percent of total market turnover. Bank of Guyana's transactions amounted to US$527.0 million or 16.7 percent of the market share. Foreign currency accounts and soft currency transactions were US$1,133.1 million and US$7.0 million and accounted for 35.9 percent and 0.2 percent of the market share respectively.

The turnover generated by the bank and non-bank cambios was US$1,487.8 million, a decline of US$152.7 million or 9.3 percent from the same period last year. Cambio purchases were US$757.6 million while sales were US$730.2 million.

Total transaction for the six bank cambios was 9.6 percent lower at US$1,441.0 million when compared to US$1,594.7 million last year while the non-bank cambios' transactions increased by US$1.0 million to US$46.7 million. Bank cambios' share of the cambio market was 96.9 percent, a contraction of 0.35 percent while the market share of the non-bank cambios was 3.1 percent, an expansion of 0.1 percent over last year.

Official transactions processed by the Bank of Guyana grew to US$527.0 million from US$465.8 million in 2013. Total receipts and payments were US$228.0 million and US$299.0 million respectively. The receipts and payments for the corresponding period in 2013 were US$166.7 million and US$299.1 million accordingly. Purchases from GUYSUCO of US$22.4 million and from the Guyana Gold Board of US$96.8 million remained the two main sources of foreign currency receipts. Sales for the importation of fuel accounted for 80.0 percent of total payments compared with 63.9 percent of total payments in 2013. The Bank of Guyana injected US$15.5 million into the market, compared with US$32.1 million for the same period last year to offset seasonal shortages.

The combined transactions of the foreign currency accounts increased by 14.4 percent to US$1,133.1 million from US$990.2 million last year. The debits and credits of these accounts were US$575.0 million and US$558.2 million respectively. The major sectors of rice, fishery, forestry, mining, finance and insurance as well as non-resident transfers account for a significant share of the transactions.

The accumulated trade amongst the commercial banks was US$17.1 million compared with US$11.4 million for the same period last year.

Amongst the four major currencies transacted, the US dollar was dominant with a market share of 91.7 percent. This was followed by the euro with 3.5 percent, the pound sterling with 2.6 percent and the Canadian dollar with 2.1 percent.

Transactions of CARICOM currencies grew to US$6.9 million from US$6.1 million for the same period in 2013. The Barbados, Eastern Caribbean and Trinidad and Tobago dollars represented 59.5 percent, 23.9 percent and 16.6 percent respectively of the overall volume of trade in regional currencies.

The Exchange Rates

The Guyana dollar, measured against the United States dollar, depreciated by 0.12 percent to reach G$206.50. The market experienced mild volatility but was generally stable during the review period.

The average of the US dollar weighted middle rates of the three largest bank cambios according to volume, and relevant only for official transactions, depreciated to G$206.50 from G$206.25 at end-December 2013. The unweighted mid-rate remained stable at G$204.75.

The total cambio market spread decreased to G$3.31 compared with G$3.59 for the same period last year. The average buying rate of bank cambios was higher at G$206.39 compared with G$203.73 recorded in June 2013. The average selling rate also increased to G$209.34 from G$206.53 for the same period in 2013. At the non-bank cambios, the average buying rate increased from G$200.43 to G$205.35 at end-June 2014. The average selling rate grew to G$209.02 from G$204.81 in 2013. The banks' spread was G$2.95 while the non-banks had a bigger spread of G$3.67. Since 2012 the non-banks have shown larger spreads than the bank cambios.

The difference between the banks' and non-banks' average buying rates narrowed to G$1.04 from G$2.57 at end-December 2013. The difference between the selling rates of the two entities contracted to G$0.32 from G$1.19 at end-December 2013.

At the end of June 2014, the Trinidad and Tobago dollar strengthened by 0.85 percent against the US dollar to settle at TT$6.37 while the Jamaican dollar slid by 5.41 percent to J$111.73 from J$105.99 at end-December 2013. The exchange rate regimes of Bahamas, Barbados, Belize and the Eastern Caribbean are fixed.

Outlook

The value of foreign exchange transactions is expected to increase due to growth in trade and unrequited transfers. Adequate foreign exchange inflows from International Financial Institutions, returns on investment as well as purchases from GUYSUCO and the Guyana Gold Board will mitigate any pressure on the exchange rate. □

5. PUBLIC FINANCE

The overall financial operations of the public sector recorded a smaller surplus due to a lower Central Government surplus as the Non-Financial Public Enterprises' deficit narrowed. The former was on account of a lower current account surplus and a larger capital account deficit, while the latter was on account of higher current receipts and lower capital expenditure.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

The Central Government overall surplus amounted to G$4,225 million, 75.4 percent lower than the G$17,164 million attained at end-June 2013. This outturn stemmed from a lower current account surplus and a higher capital account deficit.

Current Account

The current account experienced a decrease in surplus of 34.6 percent or G$9,241 million to G$17,488 million. This outcome reflected a significant expansion in current expenditure, which more than offset the growth in current revenue.

Revenue

Total current revenue rose by 3.6 percent or G$2,559 million to G$74,229 million and represented 44.1 percent of the annual budgeted amount. This increase was mainly on account of higher collections from the Customs & Trade Administration, the Value Added Tax (VAT) department and the Internal Revenue Department.

Revenue from the Customs & Trade Administration grew by 1.7 percent to G$36,594 million. This performance largely reflected an increase of 1.1 percent in import duties to G$5,334 million.

Value Added and Excise Taxes increased by 1.8 percent to G$30,662 million, on account of an 8.1 percent expansion in VAT, which amounted to G$18,368 million. Excise tax collection totaled G$12,294 million, 6.4 percent lower than the G$13,130 million at end-June 2013 level.

Receipts by the Internal Revenue Department increased by 4.5 percent to G$30,201 million, representing 40.7 percent of the total current revenue and 54.1 percent of the year's target. Personal income taxes rose by 13.6 percent to G$8,931 million, while income tax from corporations remained relatively constant at G$17,720 million. Taxes on property, which comprises property tax and estate duty, fell by 2.4 percent to G$2,023 million, mainly due to a 2.5 percent decline in property tax to G$2,003 million. Estate duty expanded by 8.8 percent to G$20 million.

Other non-tax current revenue rose by 3.4 percent or G$229 million to G$7,009 million. This outturn was mainly due to a 26.0 percent or G$1,051 million increase in Bank of Guyana's profits transferred to the Ministry of Finance. Dividends and fines, fees & charges fell by 72.2 percent and 28.8 percent to G$200 million and G$554 million respectively.

Expenditure

Current expenditure increased by G$11,800 million or 26.3 percent to G$56,741 million, and accounted for 42.1 percent of the budgeted amount for the year. This expansion was primarily due to increases in the purchase of goods and services, transfer payments from central government and employment costs.

The purchase of other goods and services expanded by G$5,126 million to G$15,228 million, reflecting increases primarily in materials, equipment and supplies, electricity charges and other miscellaneous expenses.

Transfer payments rose by 34.9 percent or G$4,917 million to G$19,004 million. This expansion was due mainly to a 41.8 percent increase in contributions to local and international organizations and a 30.2 percent increase in pensions. Employment costs increased by 11.3 percent or G$1,999 million to G$19,739 million, due to the employment of additional persons in the public sector as well as an increase in wages. Total interest paid decreased by 8.1 percent to G$2,770 million, reflecting consistent decreases in domestic interest payments.

Capital Account

The capital account deficit increased by G$3,698 million or 38.7 percent to G$13,264 million, on account of a 34.2 percent expansion in capital expenditure due mainly to greater project implementation and disbursements.

Capital revenue rose by 1.9 percent to G$1,362 million, primarily due to the CARICOM Multilateral Clearing Facility grant of G$523 million. Project grants decreased by 62.7 percent or G$341 million to G$203 million, while grants flows under the Enhanced Highly Indebted Poor Countries initiative increased by 4.9 percent to G$457 million. Multilateral Debt Relief Initiative decreased by 50.0 percent to G$178 million at end-June 2014.

Figure VIII

Overall Balance and Financing

The overall surplus contracted by G$12,939 million to G$4,225 million at end-June 2014. Consequently, net domestic savings decreased to G$7,601 million from G$19,971 million at end-June 2013. Net external borrowing increased by 20.3 percent to G$3,376 million. Disbursements of loans declined by 16.6 percent to G$5,881 million, while external principal repayments grew by 16.9 percent to G$ 1,919 million. Overseas deposits amounted to G$856 million, representing a lower net outflow of G$2,036 million.

Outlook

The central government overall surplus is expected to decrease to a deficit of G$32,280 million at the end of the fiscal year. Current and capital expenditures are expected to increase to G$134,636 million and G$81,194 million respectively. This position will cause the current account surplus and the capital account deficit to widen to G$15,116 million and $65,960 million respectively.

NON-FINANCIAL PUBLIC ENTERPRISES

The overall cash deficit of Non-Financial Public Enterprises (NFPEs), including Guyana Sugar Corporation (GUYSUCO), Guyana Power & Light (GPL) and the National Insurance Scheme (NIS), contracted by G$5,065 million or 67.2 percent to G$2,475 million. This outturn was attributed to higher current revenue by GUYSUCO and GPL.

Current Account

The current operating cash account of the NFPEs improved from a deficit of G$4,927 million, to a deficit of G$13 million at end-June 2014. This performance resulted from a 9.5 percent increase in receipts, which more than offset the 0.3 percent expansion in expenditure. Current transfers to central government increased by G$322 million to G$755 million at end-June 2014. Consequently, the overall current cash balance registered a deficit of G$768 million compared with $5,360 million recorded end-June 2013.

Receipts

The total cash receipts of the NFPEs increased by 9.5 percent to G$59,199 million. This outturn was on account of higher receipts from other income, export receipts and local sales. Other income, export receipts, and local sales grew by 80.1 percent, 10.9 percent and 9.2 percent to G$3,722 million, G$7,664 million and G$35,269 million respectively. VAT refunds received and receipts from debtors declined by 9.8 percent and 1.9 percent to G$154 million and G$12,390 million respectively.

Expenditure

Total current expenditure of the NFPEs grew marginally by 0.3 percent to G$59,212 million. This expansion reflected an 8.0 percent increase in materials & supplies and 12.2 percent growth in freight & other expenditures.

Employment cost increased by 1.4 percent to G$11,545 million, reflecting additional employment in the non-financial public sector as well as an increase in wages. Interest charges grew by 18.7 percent to G$174 million at end-June 2014.

Total current expenditure of the National Insurance Scheme increased by 8.7 percent to G$7,178 million. This expansion was as a result of increased payment of benefits and employment cost, which grew by 9.4 percent and 8.5 percent to G$6,622 million and G$552 million respectively. Short-term and industrial benefits declined by 8.3 percent and 1.3 percent to G$565 million and G$112 million respectively.

Capital Account

Capital expenditure of the NFPEs contracted by 21.7 percent or G$474 million to G$1,707 million. This decrease was on account of a reduction in the capital expenditure of GUYSUICO by 81.2 percent to G$150 million.

Overall Balance and Financing

The overall deficit of the NFPEs declined to G$2,475 million from G$7,540 million at end-June 2013. This position was financed from domestic resources of G$3,543 million and external borrowing of G$1,068 million.

Outlook

Non-Financial Public Enterprises overall deficit is expected to decline further to a deficit of G$2,119 million at end-December 2014. Receipts and expenditure of the public enterprises are estimated to increase to G$135,826 million and G$137,945 million respectively. □

6. PUBLIC DEBT

The stock of domestic debt and external public debt decreased by 9.9 percent and 1.7 percent respectively from the end-June 2013 level. The former is attributed to a contraction in the stock of outstanding government treasury bills, while the latter is due to reduced disbursements from bilateral credit delivered under the PetroCaribe Initiative. Domestic debt service payments decreased as a result of lower interest costs for treasury bills. Conversely, external debt service payments increased on account of higher principal and interest payments to bilateral and multilateral creditors.

Stock of Domestic Debt

The outstanding stock of government domestic bonded debt, which consisted of treasury bills, debentures, bonds and the CARICOM loan, amounted to G$87,299 million, a decline of 9.9 percent from end-June 2013 level and 11.7 percent from the end-December 2013 level. The decrease from one year earlier reflected a contraction of the stock of outstanding government treasury bills. The stock of defence bonds and debentures remained unchanged, while the CARICOM loan contracted marginally.

The stock of treasury bills decreased by 10.4 percent to G$82,989 million. As a percent of total treasury bills issued, the 364-day bills accounted for the largest share with 82.7 percent, while the 91-day and 182-day bills accounted for 8.4 percent and 8.9 percent respectively.

The share of the commercial banks' holdings of outstanding stock of treasury bills decreased to 79.3

percent from 81.2 percent one year earlier. The public sector share, of which the National Insurance Scheme was the only stakeholder, increased to 7.0 percent from 6.6 percent at end-June 2013. Similarly, the share of the other financial intermediaries increased to 7.1 percent from 6.7 percent one year earlier.

Total interest payments decreased by 32.4 percent to G$610 million. Interest paid on the 364-day bills, debentures and CARICOM loan fell by 39.4 percent, 35.6 percent and 5.2 percent to G$473 million, G$29 million and G$8 million respectively. These represent increases of 39 basis points, 64 basis points and 107 basis points respectively from one year earlier, as a result of prudent monetary policy action by the Bank of Guyana.

Outlook

Total domestic debt stock is projected to increase, while domestic debt service is projected to decrease for the remainder of the fiscal year. The former is expected to stem from higher issuance of treasury bills to sterilize excess liquidity within the domestic economy, while the latter is expected to decline due to an 18.3 percent reduction in the interest payments on 364-day treasury bills.

Stock of External Debt

The stock of outstanding public and publicly guaranteed external debt amounted to US$1,227 million, a decline of 1.7 percent from the end-June 2013 level and 1.6 percent from the end-December 2013 level. This reduction from the end-June 2013 level reflected a decline in bilateral debts owed to Venezuela and Trinidad and Tobago.

7. FINANCIAL SECTOR DEVELOPMENTS

Monetary aggregates of reserve money and broad money contracted by 5.1 percent and 0.1 percent respectively. The former was attributed to decreases in both net domestic assets and net foreign assets while the latter reflected a reduction in net foreign assets and other items (net). Total deposits were lower while net domestic credit by the banking system increased on account of an expansion in public and private sector credit. Commercial banks' interest rates trended downwards while interest rate spreads remained relatively high. The non-bank financial institutions were active in mobilizing resources which translated to a 7.9 percent increase in the extension of credit to the private sector.

MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

Reserve Money

Reserve or base money contracted by 5.1 percent to G$109,384 million due to a 25.6 percent and 9.6 percent reduction in net domestic assets and net foreign assets respectively. Credit to the public sector declined by 19.4 percent. The decline in reserve money is reflected in a 10.3 percent decrease in liabilities to the commercial banks while currency in circulation was lower by 0.5 percent.

Broad and Narrow Money Supply

Broad Money (M2) fell by 0.1 percent on account of a 4.4 percent or G$8,718 million decline in net foreign assets and a 131.2 percent or G$9,687 million decline in other items (net) while net domestic credit increased by 14.6 percent or G$18,116 million. This performance is reflected by the decline of 3.8 percent in narrow money (M1), primarily as a result of a 63.1 percent reduction in cashiers' cheques & acceptances.

In contrast, quasi-money increased by 2.0 percent due to a 3.1 percent and a 1.9 percent expansion in savings and time deposits respectively.

Money Multiplier and Income Velocity

The M2 multiplier increased to 2.86 percent from 2.72 percent at the end of December 2013, reflecting higher excess reserves held by the commercial banks. The income velocity of money in circulation, defined as the ratio of GDP to M2, was 1.72 compared with 1.71 for the corresponding period last year.

COMMERCIAL BANKS DEPOSITS AND INVESTMENTS

Residents' deposits with commercial banks, comprising the private and public sectors as well as the non-bank financial institutions, amounted to G$324,792 million, 1.6 percent lower than the end-December 2013 position.

Business enterprises' deposits increased by 7.6 percent to G$50,541 million while individual customers' deposits grew by 1.3 percent to G$198,441 million.

Public sector deposits amounted to G$54,848 million, 10.4 percent below the December 2013 position. The decline was mainly due to a 15.8 percent reduction in the deposits of the public enterprises which amounted to G$35,970 million at the end of the review period.

The deposits of the non-bank financial institutions decreased by 19.5 percent to G$20,963 million compared with a growth of 26.4 percent for the same period last year, reflecting the institutions' preference for government securities.

Domestic Investments

Commercial banks' gross investments amounted to G$195,993 million or 48.6 percent of the banks' total assets.

BANKING SYSTEM

Net Domestic Credit

Net domestic credit by the banking system increased by 14.6 percent to G$141,896 million compared with an increase of 27.7 percent at the end of June 2013. This performance was on account of increased credit to the private and public sectors.

Net Credit to the Public Sector

The public sector remained a net depositor of funds with the banking system, though its position declined by 21.0 percent from the December 2013 level. As at the end of June 2014, public sector (net) deposits amounted to G$28,565 million compared with G$36,144 million at end December 2013. The Central government's net credit position deteriorated from G$16,676 million to G$19,977 million, mainly on account of lower deposits in the banking system. The public enterprises (net) deposits amounted to G$32,246 million, a 19.6 percent decline from December 2013. However, net deposits of the other category of the public sector, which includes local government and the National Insurance Scheme (NIS), rose by 28.2 percent to G$16,296 million at end-June 2014.

Credit to the Private Sector

Private sector credit grew by 2.9 percent to G$190,542 million as a result of an increase in credit to all sectors, except for the other, personal and distribution sectors. The mining, construction & engineering and real estate mortgage sectors recorded growth of 10.3 percent, 7.6 percent and 7.5 percent respectively. Credit extended to the other services, manufacturing and agriculture sectors also increased by 5.4 percent, 5.2 percent and 2.1 percent, during the review period. However, loans to the other, personal and distribution sectors declined by 9.9 percent, 5.4 percent and 1.1 percent respectively.

Net Credit to the Non-Bank Financial Institutions

The non-bank financial institutions net deposits decreased by 20.3 percent to G$20,081 million compared with an increase of 24.6 percent for the corresponding period last year. This outturn stemmed from a 19.4 percent decrease in the deposits of the private non-bank financial institutions.

Net Foreign Assets

The net foreign assets of the banking system contracted by 4.5 percent to US$911.9 million at end-June 2014. This contraction resulted from a decline in the net foreign assets of the Bank of Guyana since there was an increase in the net foreign assets of the commercial banks. The Bank's net foreign assets declined by 9.7 percent to US$647.0 million and was attributed mainly to the 13.7 percent decline in its gross foreign assets while liabilities fell by 61.0 percent as a result of the CMCF debt write-off. The commercial banks' net foreign assets rose by 11.0 percent to US$264.9 million on account of an 8.0 percent increase in its gross foreign assets while its foreign liabilities declined by 3.9 percent.

Interest Rates and Spreads

The Bank rate was stable at 5.0 percent at end-June 2014 while the 91-day treasury bill rate, which is the benchmark rate, increased from 1.45 percent to 1.59 percent at the end of the review period. The commercial banks' interest rates trended downwards, reflecting the prevailing excess liquidity conditions. The prime lending rate remained stable at 12.83 percent while the small savings rate declined by 8 basis points to reach 1.25 percent from 1.33 percent at end-December 2013. At the end of the review period, the weighted average time deposit rate of the banks increased by 16 basis points to 1.32 percent while the weighted average lending rate fell by 27 basis points to 10.89 percent. The interbank market interest rate ranged between 4.0 percent and 4.5 percent over the review period.

Similarly, the spread between the 91-day treasury bill rate and the small savings rate was higher by 22 basis points at end-June 2014. The increasing spreads reflected the commercial banks' strategy to maintain profit margins while reducing costs.

Liquidity

Total liquid assets of the commercial banks amounted to G$109,253 million or 11.9 percent below the end-December 2013 level. This position was primarily due to lower holdings of treasury bills by the banks, which accounted for 62.6 percent of total liquid assets. The ratio of excess liquid assets to required liquid assets was 54.9 percent at the end of June 2014 compared with 74.9 percent for the corresponding period last year.

CAPITAL ADEQUACY PROFILE

Composition of Capital

The average Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) for the LDFIs was 23.3 percent at end-June 2014, down from 23.6 percent at end-December 2013. The total qualifying capital of the LDFIs at end-June 2014 rose by a marginal 1.8 percent to G$50,127 million over end-December 2013 but by a significant 19.3 percent above end-June 2013. The 19.3 percent expansion in the level of total qualifying capital resulted mainly from the 18.4 percent increase in tier I capital over the same comparative period. The increased tier I capital which stood at G$49,513 million at end-June 2014 was due to the 21.0 percent increase in retained earnings over the end-June 2013 level, with positive contributions from all the LDFIs.

Risk-weighted Assets

The aggregate net risk-weighted assets of the LDFIs rose 3.6 percent to reach G$215,580 million at end-June 2014 when compared with end-December 2013 and by 11.7 percent over the end-June 2013 level. The 11.7 percent growth in risk-weighted assets largely reflected expansion in credit to the manufacturing, services, agriculture, real estate mortgages, and mining and quarry sectors/sub-sectors of 11.3 percent, 13.2 percent, 16.8 percent, 16.9 percent and 25.7 percent respectively.

ASSET QUALITY

Non-performing loans

The LDFIs' non-performing loans (NPLs) at end-June 2014 grew by 21.8 percent or G$2,158 million to G$12,035 million when compared with the level one year ago. The significant deterioration in NPLs was attributed to increases by five LDFIs ranging between 30 percent (G$6 million) and 132.7 percent (G$1,145 million). NPLs as a percentage of total loans were 10 basis points higher at 5.2 percent when compared with the end-December 2013 level. This resulted from a 6.2 percent increase in NPLs along with the 4.7 percent expansion in total loans.

On a sectoral basis, NPLs in the business enterprises and households sectors expanded by 26.7 percent and 13.4 percent when compared with June 2013 levels. The manufacturing and services sub-sectors were largely responsible for the overall rise in NPLs with reported increases in the respective levels of 75.8 percent and 35.9 percent over the end-June 2013 levels. Notwithstanding, the agriculture as well as the mining & quarrying sub-sectors within the business enterprises sector recorded improvements with declines of 13.6 percent and 39.9 percent respectively.

When compared with the end-December 2013 levels however, NPLs in the manufacturing, services, agriculture and mining & quarrying sub-sectors recorded increases of 18.0 percent, 7.7 percent, and 2.2 percent respectively.

NPLs in the services sub-sector represented 35.5 percent of the LDFIs' aggregate NPLs. The distribution category (wholesale and retail trade) accounted for 65.2 percent of that sub-sector's NPLs. The construction & engineering category represented 48.8 percent of the manufacturing sub-sector's NPLs, while the paddy category accounted for 59.8 percent of the agriculture sub-sector's NPLs. The gold category accounted for 96.3 percent (G$181 million) of the mining and quarrying sub-sector's NPLs.

NPLs within the households sector at the end of the first half of 2014 deteriorated by 13.4 percent (G$484 million) when compared with end-June 2013 level, due mainly to the 21.2 percent increase in NPLs within the housing category.

The ratio of reserves for loan losses to NPLs at end-June 2014 was 65.5 percent, down from 76.4 percent at end-June 2013 and 67.8 percent at end-December 2013. The drop in the year-on-year ratio resulted mainly from the 21.8 percent increase in NPLs.

Loan Concentration

The top twenty borrowers' exposures amounted to G$58,018 million, 9.9 percent above the G$52,771 million reported at end-June 2013. This outcome was due primarily to the 48.7 percent increase by one LDFI. Loans/overdrafts and bonds/securities/debentures represented 50.0 percent and 45.7 percent of the top twenty borrowers' exposures compared with 50.7 percent and 47.3 percent recorded at end-June 2013.

Loans to related parties increased by 4.4 percent above the end-June 2013 level. The ratio of such loans to total loans decreased to 3.6 percent, compared with 3.9 percent at end-June 2013.

EARNINGS

Income

Operating/gross income for the first half of 2014 expanded by 8.4 percent (G$1,287 million) over the corresponding period last year and amounted to G$16,609 million. This increase was primarily attributed to the 10.6 percent (G$1,278 million) increase in interest income and 3.5 percent (G$41 million) in fees and commission. Foreign exchange gains and other operating income were less than one percent (G$15 million) and 3.9 percent (G$16 million) respectively below the corresponding period last year. Interest income remained the largest income source at 80.5 percent of operating income, up from 79.0 percent one year ago.

Expenses

The aggregate operating expenses of the LDFIs were 6.0 percent (G$472 million) above the June 2013 level and amounted to G$8,307 million. Increases in salaries and other staff costs and other operating expenses of 11.7 percent (G$267 million) and 5.7 percent (G$178 million) were responsible for the overall 6.0 percent expansion. Interest expense reflected minimal movement with a less than 1.0 percent (G$18 million) decline from the same period last year. During the first half of 2014 the LDFIs collectively recovered G$155 million in bad debts previously written-off, while for the same period last year a total of G$88 million in bad debts had been written-off.

Net income before tax and profitability ratios

Net income before tax for the LDFIs improved by 10.6 percent (G$795 million) to reach G$8,281 million for the January-June 2014 period. Net income after tax grew by 12.4 percent (G$651 million) ending the half-year at G$5,913 million and was directly correlated to the observed increase in operating income over operating expenses.

The ROA increased 10 basis points while the ROE fell 40 basis points to 1.3 percent and 10.8 percent respectively when compared with the corresponding period last year.

This section examines the stability and soundness of the financial system. In particular, it analyses the performance of the following Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) for the first half of 2014: Republic Bank (Guyana) Limited (RBGL); Guyana Bank for Trade & Industry Limited (GBTI); Demerara Bank Limited (DBL); Citizens Bank (Guyana) Incorporated (CBI); Bank of Baroda (Guyana) Incorporated (BOB); Bank of Nova Scotia (BNS), Hand in Hand Trust Corporation Incorporated (HIHT) and The New Building Society (NBS).

LIQUIDITY

The financial sector remained highly liquid during the first half of 2014, with all the LDFIs exceeding the minimum statutory requirements. For the first half of 2014, excess liquid assets ranged between one percent and 304 percent. The average liquid assets held at end-June 2014 exceeded the statutory liquid assets requirements by 78.5 percent (G$58,827 million), compared with 91.8 percent (G$68,343 million) at end-June 2013.

At end-June 2014, the average level of liquid assets held by LDFIs amounted to G$133,809 million, 6.3 percent (G$8,970 million) below the average level recorded for the corresponding 2013 half-year. This decline resulted from contractions in foreign investments - 74 percent (G$1,781 million), net balances due from LDFIs in Guyana - 25 percent (G$3,605 million), local treasury bills - 16 percent (G$4,797 million), and deposits with BOG - 15 percent (G$8,407 million); stymied by increases in net balances due from Head Office and other branches abroad - 43 percent (G$2,806 million), net balances due from other banks abroad - 42 percent (G$5,092 million), cash in hand - 15 percent (G$679 million), and marketable obligations - 6 percent (G$1,043 million).

The average liquid asset ratio (LAR) fell by 300 basis points from the end-June 2013 position to reach 29.2 percent at end-June 2014. The ratio of customers' deposits to total (non-interbank) loans ratio, which indicates the ability of the LDFIs to support loan growth with deposits, declined by a further 20.3 percentage points to reach 167.3 percent at end-June 2014. The falling ratio is indicative of lending increasing at a faster rate than deposits signaling continued intermediation improvement in the industry. □

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC AND MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

The World Economy

Global economic growth strengthened to 3.2 percent in the first half of 2014. This was driven by stronger growth impetus of 2.3 percent from the Advanced Countries. Emerging Economies experienced steady but slower growth of 4.0 percent due to structural bottlenecks in infrastructure, labour markets and investment. Developing Countries experienced stable growth on account of solid domestic demand, higher production and exports as commodity prices remained favourable. The Latin America and Caribbean Region recorded slower growth of 2.5 percent due to a decline in investment and weaknesses in domestic and external demand. Global inflation remained subdued at 2.5 percent on account of relatively low food and fuel prices while global unemployment remained high and relatively unchanged as the effects from the financial crisis continued to weigh on the labour markets of many countries.

Advanced Economies

Output

The US economy led the recovery in the Advanced Economies with a growth of 2.8 percent in the first half of 2014. Higher level of exports and increases in inventory and demand were mainly responsible for the upswing in growth. The Euro Area recorded a growth of 1.2 percent due to stronger performances from Germany and France through increased external and domestic demand. The United Kingdom economy grew by 3.2 percent on account of increased construction, business services as well as industrial production. Japan recorded moderate growth of 1.0 percent due to increased consumer spending and business investment.

Inflation

Inflation remained subdued at 3.3 percent due to a decline in food and fuel prices. In the US, core inflation was 1.9 percent while in the Euro Area inflation was 0.3 percent. Japan recorded an inflation rate of 2.3 percent due to stronger growth and depreciation of the Japanese Yen.

Employment

Unemployment rates in the US hovered around 6.3 percent due to increase in activities in the manufacturing sector as well as in the automobile industry. The Euro Area continued to experience high unemployment with rates ranging from 5.1 percent in Germany to 26 percent in Spain. The United Kingdom and Japan recorded declines in unemployment rate to 6.7 percent and 3.5 percent respectively from higher growth levels.

Monetary and Exchange Rates

Accommodative monetary policy continued in Advanced Countries to spur and sustain growth. The US treasury rate fell to 2.0 percent although the Federal Reserve Bank continued to taper its assets purchase. The European Central Bank reduced its rate by 25 basis points to a low 0.15 percent while the Bank of England rate remained unchanged at 0.50 percent.

The US dollar continued to strengthen against the Euro at US$134 and the Pound Sterling at £1.68. The Japanese Yen remained weak at ¥101.99.

Emerging Economies

Output

Emerging Economies continued to grow, albeit at a slower pace as they continue to benefit from exports to Advanced Countries. The Chinese and Indian economies grew by 7.2 percent and 5.4 percent due to continued accommodative policy in China and improved export competitiveness in India. Mexico grew by 3.0 percent while the Brazilian economy remained subdued, growing at 1.8 percent. However, domestic investment remained modest from tighter external and domestic financial conditions.

Inflation

The inflation rate for Emerging Economies averaged 5.7 percent. Brazil's inflation rate was 5.9 percent due to a depreciation of its currency and high real wages. India's inflation was 9.0 percent, influenced primarily by higher food prices and import prices. China's inflation rate was subdued at 2.3 percent due to a decline in factory gate prices.

Employment

The unemployment level remained unchanged in most Emerging Economies when compared to the previous year on account of slowing of investments. India's unemployment rate was 8.5 percent while China's was 4.5 percent tempered by a more vibrant manufacturing sector. Brazil's unemployment rate was 4.3 percent while Russia's remained at 5.4 percent due to limited new job opportunities.

Developing Countries

Output

Growth in Developing Countries was steady at 6.3 percent as they benefited from the recovery in Advanced Countries. The Sub-Saharan Africa Region's growth was 5.4 percent, buoyed by favorable terms of trade. The Developing Asian Region's growth was 6.6 percent as a result of higher exports to the Advanced Countries. The Latin America and Caribbean Region, however, recorded slower growth due to lower exports, private consumption, manufacturing, and construction.

Inflation

The inflation rate for the Developing Countries remained flat at 2.0 percent due to lower domestic prices and stable oil prices. The Sub-Saharan Africa region recorded a decline in inflation to 5.2 percent while that of Latin America and Caribbean Region was subdued at 2.8 percent. The Developing Asian Region's inflation was contained at 4.5 percent as a result of soft commodity prices.

Employment

Unemployment remained high for developing countries as a result of weaker investments and domestic demand especially across Latin America and the Caribbean Region and the Sub-Saharan Africa Region.

Caribbean Economies

Output

The Caribbean Economies experienced mixed performances for the period under review. The resource based economies recorded higher growth while the tourist oriented economies continued to falter. Guyana and Suriname experienced output growth of 3.2 percent and 4.4 percent respectively, while Trinidad and Tobago and Jamaica's economies recorded growth of 2.4 percent and 1.8 percent respectively. Service based economies continued to face difficulties since the fall out from the global financial crises in the Industrialized Countries. Bahamas and ECCU grew by 1.9 percent and 0.7 percent respectively while Barbados experienced a negative growth of 0.7 percent.

Inflation

The inflation rate in the Caribbean remained modest. Guyana's Urban Consumer Price Index recorded a marginal decline of 0.4 percent while that of the Bahamas increased by 2.3 percent. Trinidad and Tobago experienced slightly higher inflation of 3.2 percent while Barbados' rate was 1.2 percent while that of Jamaica was 1.3 percent.

Exchange Rates

Barbados, Belize and the ECCU continued their policy of fixed exchange rates vis-à-vis the US dollar. Trinidad and Tobago's exchange rate was stable at $6.67 while the Guyana dollar depreciated slightly to $206.50 from $206.25. The Jamaican dollar was $111.10 vis-à-vis the US dollar reflecting a 10.8 percent depreciation.

Commodity Prices

The prices of agricultural commodities remained favorable with sugar prices at US$0.18 per pound and rice price at US$412 per metric tonne. Aluminum price was US$1,705.37 per metric tonne, while gold price hovered around US$1,279 per ounce. Oil price was US$111.87 per barrel.

Outlook

Global growth is projected to rise to 3.6 percent in 2014 by a further 3.9 percent in 2015 due mainly to the recovery in Advanced Countries. Despite the turnaround, output gap in Advanced Countries remains at risk and accommodative monetary policy will have to mitigate that risk. Emerging Markets and Developing Countries are expected to benefit from increased domestic and external demands. Even though global inflation is projected to remain low, unemployment will continue to be high, presenting a major downside risk. □

III

MONETARY POLICY AND BANK ACTIVITIES

The conduct of monetary policy remained focused on price stability, ensuring adequate level of liquidity in the system and creating an enabling environment for credit and economic growth. The Bank used treasury bills as the main instrument in the primary open market operations for the effective management of liquidity. Purchases and sales of foreign exchange by the Bank were also used to control liquidity. There was a G$11.5 billion net redemption of treasury bills. The Bank has facilitated efficient intermediation through the issuance of notes and coins as well as promotion of an enhanced payment system operation.

MONETARY POLICY

Monetary policy recommendations were determined within the framework of monetary programming and the evolving circumstances impinging on inflation expectation, liquidity condition and macroeconomic stability. The Bank's principal instrument of monetary control continued to be the auction of treasury bills in the primary market. The monetary policy stance was signaled through the volume of treasury bills issued with implications for the general level of interest rates.

MONETARY PROGRAMMING

In principle, monetary programming allowed the Bank to set a targeted path for the growth of broad money consistent with economic growth and inflation. Its foundation rested on the observation that the Bank controls the supply of reserve or base money, which comprises currency in circulation and commercial banks' reserves at the Bank, to attain the targeted expansion in the money stock. The underlying assumption for the effective operation of the reserve money programme is the long term stability of the money multiplier, which is defined as the relationship between reserve money and broad money supply.

Reserve money is influenced mainly by the operations of the Bank. Changes in the Bank's net foreign assets and net domestic assets (which are largely affected by the operations of the central government) impact on the level of reserve money. The Bank's intervention in the foreign exchange market will affect the liquidity condition in the system when it buys or sells foreign currency. Since the counter parties to the Bank's foreign currency transactions are the commercial banks, the transactions affect the net foreign assets and the net domestic assets of the commercial banks.

A sale of foreign currency by the Bank will increase the net foreign assets and reduce the net domestic assets of the commercial banks and vice versa. On the Bank's balance sheet a sale of foreign currency will reduce its net foreign assets as well as its liabilities to commercial banks and hence reserve money. On the other hand, a purchase of foreign currency by the Bank will increase its net foreign assets and also reserve money.

The operations of the government add or withdraw liquidity from the system. An increase in net credit to the government, which will increase the net domestic assets of the Bank, results in an increase in reserve money. This usually occurs through a relative increase in expenditure compared with the increase in revenue. The net deposits of the central government are therefore affected.

During the review period, weekly forecasts of the Bank's balance sheet were produced based on estimated liquid reserve positions of the commercial banks and the public. These forecasts were compared with the weekly targeted monetary growth which was consistent with the set nominal output objective. The deviations established by this comparison indicated the baseline scenario level of the open market operation necessary to bring the forecast money supply in line with its targeted annual growth. The actual weekly intervention was determined by the Open Market Operation Committee (OMOC) on the baseline scenario and prevailing developments.

The OMOC adopted a consultative approach during the review period by liaising closely with agencies which impacted directly on liquidity in the financial sector. Additionally, other information such as the state of the foreign exchange market, the interbank market, the structure of interest rates and the liquidity position of the non-bank financial institutions facilitated more informed decisions by the OMOC.

Reserve money was G$109,384 million, G$6,140 million below the target due to a decrease in the net foreign assets of the Bank. Total redemptions of treasury bills were G$58,066 million while issues amounted to G$46,566 million. The commercial banks' holdings of treasury bills fell by G$9,418 million compared with an increase of G$11,698 million for the corresponding period last year.

Liquidity condition varied among commercial banks and was reflected by the inter-bank market. There were eighty-three trades at end-June 2014 compared with thirty-one trades at end-June 2013. The value of funds traded was G$66,270 million compared with G$26,355 million during the corresponding period last year. The inter-bank market interest rate hovered around 4.0 percent to 4.5 percent over the review period.

Monetary policy was able to control liquidity condition in the banking system which contributed to the maintenance of macroeconomic stability and an environment for fostering economic growth in the economy.

RESERVE MANAGEMENT

The Bank's gross foreign assets decreased from US$777 million as at end-December 2013 to US$670 million as at end-June 2014. As a percent of total reserves, US dollars holding was 98.14 percent. Pounds Sterling, Euro and Canadian holdings accounted for 0.24 percent, 0.44 percent and 1.04 percent respectively. The Bank's foreign assets were mainly held in capital market instruments which were 74 percent of the total, gold (12.0 percent) money market securities (3.0 percent) and deposits with foreign banks (7.0 percent). The rates of return for these assets ranged from 0.01 percent to 12.75 percent per annum.

BANK ACTIVITIES

Currency Operations

The Bank has a statutory obligation to issue the country's notes and coins under section 21(1) of the Bank of Guyana Act 1998, No. 19 of 1998. The Bank continued to discharge its obligation to meet the demand for currency.

Notes

The total value of currency notes in circulation (including notes held in the vaults of commercial banks) at the end of June 2014 amounted to

G$64,585 million, an increase of 14.5 percent when compared to G$56,391 million at the end of June 2013. A G$5000 note was introduced in December of 2013 and this contributed to the decrease in the number of notes in circulation. At the end of June 2014, the share of G$5000 in the total value was 23.9 percent. The share of G$1,000 fell to 71.1 percent from 94.4 percent. The share of G$500 fell to 2.1 percent from 2.4 percent. The share of the G$100 fell to 2.1 percent from 2.3 percent and the G$20 also fell to 0.8 percent from 0.9 percent.

The total supply of currency increased by 28.8 percent over the period January to June, 2013. This increase was due to a higher opening stock and an increase in notes purchased.

The Policy of ensuring that acceptable quality notes are in circulation continued during the review period. This was achieved by regular destruction of mutilated, defaced or otherwise poor quality notes and replacing them with new notes. Mutilated, defaced and poor quality notes amounting to G$215.6 million were submitted for replacement in the first half of 2014 compared with G$264.8 million in the first half of 2013.

Coins

Coins issued by the Bank of Guyana amounted to G$882.4 million at the end of June 2014, an increase of 5.6 percent above the G$835.3 million in June, 2013. The $10 coin continued to account for the highest proportion of the total value of coins, followed by the G$5 and G$1 coins, respectively. In value terms the share of G$10 coins accounted for 43.9 percent, the G$5 accounted for 38.7 percent and the G$1 for 17.4 percent.

In terms of the total quantity of coins issued, the share of G$1 accounted for 58.9 percent, and those of the G$5 and G$10 accounted for 26.2 percent and 14.9 percent respectively.

Payments System

During the period January to June 2014, 465,719 low value transactions (LVT) were settled through the National Clearing House (NCH), a decrease of 2.0 percent when compared with the volume recorded for the same period in 2013. The volume of high value transactions (HVT) rose to 68,556, an increase of 1.9 percent. There was a decrease recorded in value of high-value transactions which fell to G$384.2 billion and an increase in the value of low-value transactions which rose to G$180 billion. The overall value decreased by 2.9 percent to reach G$564.6 billion. The share of HVT of the total value of transactions fell from 70.42 percent in 2013 to 68.06 percent in 2014. However, the share of LVT rose to 31.94 percent in 2014 from 29.58 percent in the previous period. The average value of HVT fell by 8.2 percent in 2014 to reach G$5.6 million, while the average value of LVT rose by 7 percent to reach G$0.39 million.

The data provided record balances at the end of the respective period and therefore indicates the indebtedness of the respective industries at the end of the reporting period. The value of credit obtained by each industry for a given period can be obtained by taking the difference between the balances at the end of the desired period and that immediately preceding. The balances in this table exclude inter-bank loans, real estate mortgage loans, local securities and other credit instruments. It should be noted that gross indebtedness of the sugar and rice industry can be obtained by adding the balances of sugar cane and sugar and molasses manufacturing of sugar, and paddy and rice milling for rice respectively. Figures under the 'other purposes' sub-category has been reclassified to exclude credit card transactions effective from March 2007. Due to a reclassification by two Commercial Banks, figures under the Private Sector have been revised from January 2012 to March 2013. See note under Loans to Non-Residents for Table 2.1 (a) above. See note under Private Sector for Table 2.1(a) above.

TABLE 2.14: Commercial Banks: Liquid Assets

The liquid assets comprise Bank of Guyana notes and coins, foreign currency held by banks, (special interest earning) deposits held at the Bank of Guyana (BOG), balances due from other Commercial Banks - both local and foreign, Government of Guyana Treasury Bills. The special reserves deposits (SRDs) established in 1969, discontinued in 1994 as the Bank of Guyana sought to develop its capacity to manage the excess reserves of the bank more effectively. Approximately, 75-80 per cent of the SRDs were absorbed through a sale of three year, variable rate, and fixed date debenture to the Commercial Banks.

Prior to March 1989, the legally required level of liquid assets to be held by the Commercial Banks against their deposit liabilities was calculated as the sum of 20 percent of demand liabilities and 15 percent of time liabilities. During the period March 31, 1989 to May 15, 1991 the determination of the required liquid assets held by the banks was based on actual holdings on specified dates. Accordingly, from March 31, 1989 to June 30, 1990 required liquid assets were stipulated as the actual holdings on March 15, 1989. Between July 30, 1990 and February 19, 1991 the required liquid assets was based on the assets held by the banks on September 30, 1989. Further, between February 20, 1991 and May 14, 1991 the required balances were set as at the end of July 30, 1990.

With effect from May 15, 1991, however, the basis for calculating required liquid assets was changed to 25 percent of demand liabilities and 20 percent of time liabilities. Further, amendments to the liquid asset requirements became effective on 26th, October 1998. The liquid assets base period has been redefined as the Monday to Friday workweek immediately preceding the liquid asset maintenance period. The liquid asset requirement is determined by applying the prescribed percentages to the weekly average of the daily liabilities balances at the close of business of each of the five days of the liquid asset base period. Figures for Treasury Bills were reclassified from December 2000 to December 2002.

TABLE 2.15: Commercial Banks: Minimum Reserve Requirements

Prior to May 16, 1991, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were calculated as 6 percent of demand liabilities and 4 percent of time liabilities. Their percentages were changed with effect from May 16, 1991, to 11 percent of demand liabilities and 9 percent of time liabilities. Commencing April 7, 1994, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were again revised to the sum of 16 percent of demand liabilities and 14 percent of time liabilities.

On June 29, 1998, in addition to Commercial Banks, other licensed Financial Institutions were required to maintain balances with the Central Bank against their deposits and other liabilities. Further, the required reserve period has been changed on Monday to Friday workweek instead of the Wednesday to Thursday week used previously. The required reserve period has been referred to as the reserve base period. The week following the current reserve base period, i.e. the reserve maintenance period is also based on the Monday to Friday workweek. The deposits and other liabilities to which the required reserve ratio(s) are applied are referred to as the reserve base. During the reserve maintenance period, all licensed Financial Institutions subject to reserve requirement are required to maintain reserves against the relevant deposit and other liabilities.

Effective February 1, 1999, the required reserve ratio applicable to all liabilities of licensed Financial Institutions was lowered to twelve per cent (12 %). The first reserve base period for which the revised requirements became relevant was the 1st to 5th February 1999 while the reserve maintenance period was the 8th to 12th February 1999. However, reserve balances for the Non-Bank licensed Financial Institutions are excluded from table 2.15.
