1. OVERVIEW

Output of Guyana's major commodities was lower during the third quarter of 2008 when compared with the corresponding period in 2007. This was particularly the case for sugar, rice, forestry products, diamond and fishing. There was modest growth recorded in the mining sector while the manufacturing sector posted mixed performance.

Higher international fuel and commodity prices continued to affect the level of inflation in Guyana. The inflation rate during the third quarter of 2008 grew by 7.8 percent compared with 13.9 percent for the corresponding period in 2007.

The balance of payments recorded an overall surplus of US$36.1 million at end of September 2008 from a deficit of US$0.9 million in the corresponding period 2007. The turnaround was on account of higher capital account surplus since the current account deficit expanded with escalated fuel and commodity prices.

The foreign exchange market continued to grow during the review period. Purchases were influenced by the increase in export receipts and remittances, while sales were related to higher import costs. In the cambio market, foreign currency sales exceeded purchases by US$12.0 million. The Guyana dollar depreciated slightly against the US dollar due to periodic increase in excess demand.

The overall surplus of the public sector contracted during the review period. This position resulted from relatively higher expenditure by the central government since receipts from corporations and tax revenues increased slightly.

The stock of domestic debt grew on account of higher issuance of 364-day treasury bills to stabilize excess liquidity in the financial system. External debt also expanded primarily as a result of multilateral and bilateral disbursements of US$49.5 million and US$86.7 million, respectively. The latter resulted mainly from the Petrocaribe initiative.

Monetary aggregates reflected economic activities in the domestic economy. Broad money grew by 9.3 percent on account of significant increase in net foreign assets and credit to the private sector. This position is reflected in the expansion of quasi-money (comprising of interest-earning savings and time deposits of the private sector) and narrow money (comprising of currency in circulation, demand deposits and cashiers' cheques & acceptances).

The net foreign assets of the banking system increased by 11.3 percent on account of higher holdings of foreign assets by the Bank of Guyana (hereafter referred to as the Bank). Total liquidity of the banking system increased on account of the higher investments in treasury bills by the commercial banks. Interest rates changed marginally during the review period. The commercial banks' savings rates and lending rates decreased over the review period. This situation was mainly on account of commercial banks' strategy to lower cost and boost credit growth.

The financial system remained relatively stable during the third quarter of 2008, with the Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) being adequately capitalised, highly liquid and profitable. The positive performance was supported largely by favorable domestic macroeconomic conditions. Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) continued to increase in excess of the 8 percent prudential benchmark. The reduction in non-performing loans underscored the improvement in asset quality during the review period.

The global economy continued to grow, albeit at a significantly slower pace during the third quarter 2008. The U.S.A and other advanced economies experienced slower growth as a result of the global financial crisis caused by the mortgage collapse in the U.S.A. However, moderate performances were recorded by emerging economies and the Latin America and the Caribbean countries (LAC). Higher inflation continued to remain a downside risk.

During the fourth quarter, the Guyanese economy is expected to continue its growth path, particularly in the mining, construction and services sectors. The agriculture sector which faced minor setbacks in the third quarter is expected to register modest growth in the fourth quarter. Inflationary risks will remain strong, particularly with respect to world oil and food prices.

The Bank of Guyana will continue to closely monitor all factors that may have an adverse impact on the financial system and implement the necessary policies. The efficacy of the Bank's policies will depend on the stance of central government fiscal policy. □

2. REVIEW OF THIRD QUARTER 2008

Output & Growth

Preliminary figures from the Bureau of Statistics suggest that output of Guyana's major commodities were lower during the third quarter of 2008 when compared with the corresponding period in 2007. The agricultural sector saw a decline in the production of sugar and rice by 3.6 percent and 1.6 percent, respectively. There was mixed performance in the livestock sector with an increase in the production of eggs by 64 percent and a decline in the production of poultry meat by 12 percent. The forestry sector contracted on account of more stringent regulations and inclement weather.

The mining and quarrying sector recorded modest growth in the third quarter. Bauxite output increased by 8 percent due to higher commodity prices and restructuring in the sector, while gold output grew by 9 percent. Conversely, diamond output declined by 42 percent as miners switched to the production of gold. The manufacturing sector posted mixed performance with an increase in the production of paints and alcoholic beverages by 1.7 percent and 6.3 percent, respectively, whereas there were declines in the production of pharmaceuticals and non-alcoholic beverages by 2.5 percent and 33 percent, respectively.

Costs & Prices

The inflation rate for third quarter 2008, as measured by the Urban Consumer Price

Index (CPI), grew by 7.8 percent compared with 13.9 percent for the corresponding period in 2007. Most price increases are either directly or indirectly linked to higher fuel and commodity prices.

Balance of Payments

Preliminary estimates indicate the overall balance of payments moved from a deficit of US$0.9 million to a surplus of US$36.1 million at the end of September 2008. This position mainly reflected a higher capital account surplus, due to an increase in inflows from bilateral and multilateral agencies. The current account deficit increased by 31.9 percent to US$195.3 million at end September 2008, on account of higher merchandise imports due to high fuel and commodity prices. Export earnings grew by 22 percent to US$589.6 million, on account of rising international commodity prices.

The balance of payments surplus of US$36.1 million, contributed to a 20.1 percent increase in the gross international reserves of the Bank of Guyana to US$367.4 million. This level of reserves is equivalent to 2.6 months of import cover for goods and services.

Foreign Exchange Market Activities

The foreign exchange market transactions grew to US$3,669 million compared to US$2,904 million in the corresponding period last year. Purchases and sales were US$1,869 million and US$1,800 million, respectively. Transactions conducted in the Cambio segment of the market accounted for 48.1 percent, while the hard currency receipts and foreign currency accounts were for 50.7 percent of total transactions. Soft currency transactions amounted to US$45.6 million.

The Bank of Guyana hard currency receipts during the review period was US$367.4 million. These receipts mainly comprised of non-bank purchases of US$212.2 million from GUYSUCO and the Guyana Gold Board. There was a net purchase of US$22.1 million from the commercial banks. Hard currency payments totaled US$282.9 million.

The Guyana dollar depreciated slightly against the US dollar at end-September 2008 due to periodic increase in excess demand. The Bank of Guyana's mid-rate depreciated by 0.25 percent, to G$204 per US dollar, while the commercial banks weighted mid-rate depreciated by 0.49 percent to G$204.1 at the end of the review period. The overall spread widened by 6.9 percent to G$3.25 when compared to the end of 2007.

Public Finance

Central Government's overall balance during the third quarter was lower compared to the corresponding period last year. This position was attributed to increase current expenditure. Proceeds for the Value Added Tax (VAT) were higher, while revenue from excise tax was lower. There was growth in overall expenditure of Corporations, particularly with respect to capital expenditure within Guyana Sugar Corporation (Guysuco) and Guyana Power and Light (GPL).

The stock of external public and publicly guaranteed debt rose by 20.3 percent to US$804 million from the end of September last year, reflecting arrangements under the PetroCaribe initiative and the disbursement from Inter-American Development Bank. The stock of domestic debt also grew by 8.1 percent from December 2007 to G$74,973 million. This outcome resulted from the issuance of 364-day treasury bills to mop up excess liquidity in the financial system.

External debt service costs increased by 10.5 percent to US$11.5 million, reflecting new debt payment schedule primarily for multilateral creditors. Domestic debt charges declined by 7 percent to G$2,110 million on account of the lower volumes of 182- day and 364-day treasury bills redeemed during the third quarter of 2008.

Monetary Developments

Monetary developments were consistent with economic activities at September 2008. Reserve money stood at G$60,514 million, an increase of 10.9 percent when compared with the December 2007 level. This outturn was attributed to a 25.7 percent increase in the net foreign assets of the Bank and is reflected in a 37.2 percent increase in deposits. The net domestic assets of the Bank, however, decreased by 55.6 percent to G$4,398 million due to a decline in central government's deposits.

The stock of broad money, comprising of currency in circulation and private sector deposits, grew by 9.3 percent to G$178,595 million, reflecting the expansion of both narrow-money and quasi-money.

Narrow-money, consisting of currency in circulation, private sector demand deposits and cashiers cheques & acceptances, increased by 10.3 percent, largely on account of growth in demand deposits and cheques & acceptances. Quasi-money, comprising of interest-bearing deposits of the private sector, increased by 8.8 percent to reach G$118,788 million reflecting a 9.6 percent expansion in savings deposits.

Total deposits by residents grew by 8.8 percent to G$191,094 million while deposits by non-residents declined by 18.6 percent to G$1,943 million. Private sector deposits, which accounted for 75.9 percent of total deposit by residents, increased by 10.7 percent. The growth in private sector savings was associated with higher earnings and remittances-related inflows.

Net domestic credit of the banking system increased by 25.6 percent on account of higher credit to the private sector. The public sector continues to be a net depositor with the banking system despite lower net deposits of 17.2 percent compared with a net deposit of 45 percent for the corresponding period last year.

Credit to the private sector expanded by 12 percent during the review period. Categorized by economic activities, credit to the mining, real estate mortgage loans, distribution, agriculture and other services sectors increased by 110.5 percent, 23.4 percent, 20.6 percent, 18.5 percent and 14.5 percent, respectively. This outturn was due to the increased level of economic activities in these sectors. Loans to the personal and rice milling sectors also grew by 2.9 percent and 1.5 percent respectively. However, credit to the manufacturing and other sectors declined by 3 percent and 1.2 percent, respectively.

The net foreign assets of the banking system grew by 11.3 percent to US$454.4 million. This growth was driven mainly by a 25.4 percent increase in the net foreign assets of the Bank of Guyana which stood at US$275.1 million. The commercial banks' net foreign assets decreased by 5.1 percent to US$179.3 million. This change is attributed to the commercial banks' decreased holdings abroad.

The 91-day, 182-day and 364-day treasury bill yields increased by 4 basis points, 15 basis points and 41 basis points respectively, as a result of competitive bidding. The average prime lending rates of the commercial banks decreased by 17 basis points while the small savings rate declined by 6 basis points to reach 3.08 percent. Similarly, the weighted time deposit rate and the weighted average lending rate declined by 6 basis points and 27 basis points, respectively.

The overall liquidity of the banking system increased by 9.1 percent to G$70,953 million largely on account of higher holdings of treasury bills by commercial banks. Consequently, the ratio of excess liquid assets to total liquid assets increased marginally from 41.5 percent at December 2007 to 41.8 percent at September 2008.

Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs)

The financial resources of the Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs), which includes depository and non-depository financial institutions, grew by 5.4 percent to G$134,234 million at September 2008. This resulted in a marginal increase of 0.9 percent in the NBFIs' share of total assets in the financial sector.

The additional resources were mobilized from a 5.7 percent and a 5.2 percent increase in other liabilities and share deposits, respectively. In addition, there was a 30.9 percent expansion in insurance premiums and 6.8 percent increase in pension funds.

NBFI's funds were used for investments in the foreign and private sectors and to increase claims on the local banking sector. Investments in the foreign sector increased by 9.1 percent, as insurance and trust companies continued to invest in foreign securities and hold large balances at foreign banks. Use of funds for investments in the private sector grew slightly by 6.5 percent and represented 43.5 percent of the sectors assets. This position was due to continued investments in local securities and real estate mortgage loans. In addition, the banking sector claims grew by 9.9 percent, while investments in the public sector declined by 18.5 percent.

Financial Stability Assessment

The financial system remained relatively stable during the third quarter of 2008, with the Licensed Depository Financial Institutions (LDFIs) being adequately capitalized, highly liquid and profitable. The Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) was 15.8 percent at September 2008, compared with 15.3 percent at December 2007. The increase in the ratio was attributable to higher Tier 1 capital and a significant increase in risk-weighted assets.

Non -performing loans of LDFIs as a share of total loans was 11 percent during the review period, lower than the 12 percent recorded for the corresponding period in 2007. This outturn stemmed mainly from a slower rate of increase of 6 percent in the level of non- performing loans and a 17 percent rise in the aggregated value of loans. The ratio of provision for loan losses to non-performing loans declined from 48.7 percent at the end of September 2007 to 45.9 percent at the end of September 2008. This situation was due to less than 1 percent increase in provision for loan losses.

Loans to the top twenty borrowers amounted to G$29,213 million, 4 percent above the level at September 2007. Within the top twenty borrowers group, four of the seven LDFIs were responsible for the increase. However, the ratio of loans to the top twenty borrowers to total loans, declined from 42 percent at the end of September 2007, to 38 percent at the end of September 2008.

The gross income of LDFIs amounted to G$18,393 million at the end of September 2008, 57 percent above the level for the corresponding period last year. The increase was attributed to 38 percent growth in interest income emanating mainly from private sector credit.

The aggregate expenses of the LDFIs increased by 40 percent to G$12,730 million mainly on account of increases in interest expenses, which grew by 102 percent reflecting 14 percent growth in deposits.

The net income before tax of the LDFIs expanded by 24 percent to reach G$5,663 million in September 2008. Net income after tax increased by 27 percent to G$4,043 million.

The average liquid assets held by LDFIs amounted to G$57,633 million, 15 percent above the average level recorded for the corresponding period in 2007. This growth reflected increases in reserve deposits and investments in Government of Guyana Treasury Bills.

Monetary Policy

The objectives of the Bank of Guyana's monetary policy are the attainment of price stability and the creation of an enabling environment for credit expansion and economic growth. The Bank seeks to allow the expansion of broad money along a path consistent with projections for output and inflation. Thus, weekly targets for broad money are translated into targets for base money using the money multiplier. To achieve these weekly base money targets the Bank focuses on the effective management of excess liquidity in the financial system through its Open Market Operations (OMOs).

During the third quarter, base money increased by G$7,073 million compared with a decline of G$416 million for the corresponding period in 2007. During surges in liquidity above the desired levels, treasury bills were issued to reduce the level of base money to bring it in line with the targeted levels. There were twenty (20) issues of treasury bills amounting to G$53,750 million, while redemptions amounted to G$45,059 million. Consequently, there was a net treasury bills issue of G$8,691 million.

The Bank's monetary policy was also reflected in the prevailing interest rates. Treasury bill discount rates increased marginally during the third quarter, while the savings and lending rates at the commercial banks either remained unchanged or declined marginally.

The Global Economy

The global economy slowed markedly during the third quarter as a result of tightening in credit conditions caused by the financial crisis which originated from the subprime mortgage collapse in the U.S.A. Advanced economies grew on average, by 1 percent during the review period, down from 2.5 percent in the corresponding period in 2007. Emerging and developing economies continue to buoy global growth, with commodity-exporting countries like China, India and Brazil benefiting from high prices and an appreciated EURO. However, economies with strong trade links to the U.S.A and Europe experienced marginally lower growth. Growth in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) slowed, reflecting the impact of sluggish U.S.A growth and its adverse effects on remittances, trade, and tourism.

Headline inflation in the U.S.A and other advanced economies increased on average from 2.3 percent to between 3 and 4 percent, wages have generally remained subdued and slowing economic activity and rising unemployment fears restrained pay increases. Headline inflation in emerging economies and Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) countries has quickened averaging 8.3 percent during the period reflecting the impact of high international commodity and fuel prices. The surge in international prices for fuel and commodities has led to further widening in global trade imbalances, resulting in wider current account surpluses in oil producing and commodity-exporting economies and larger deficits on their trading counterparts.

However, the U.S.A trade deficit was moderated by a depreciated dollar that saw export growth of 3.9 percent and a marginal decline of 1.9 percent in imports coming into the third quarter of 2008. Other advanced economies in the European Union and Asia reported stagnated export growth and mild increases in imports, due partly to an appreciated EURO, pound and yen resulting in market loss to emerging economies. □

REMITTANCES IN GUYANA

Remittances have become a significant source of income for residents in many developing countries. The Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) estimated that in 2007 migrants from the Caribbean and Latin America sent home some US$66.5 billion. The IDB also estimated that the volume of remittances to Latin America and the Caribbean is expected to surpass US$100 billion annually by 2010. These inflows of remittances by migrants are used mainly for consumption and, to a lesser extent, for savings and investments.

CARICOM countries, Canada and the United Kingdom.

The inflow of remittances grew significantly during the past six years. Net Remittances increased from US$3.4 million in 2002 to US$224.4 million in 2007. In the first half of 2008, net flows of remittances increased by 6.3 percent or US$6.6 million to US$111.8 million compared to half year 2007. Despite this increase, the IDB stated that 2008 will be the first year on record during which the real contribution of remittances to households in the Caribbean and Latin America will have decreased.

Remittances are directly linked to migration such that an increase in remittances is driven by an increase in migration flows. Moreover, the extent of the inflow of remittances is partially determined by the destination country of the migrants and the ties that the migrants have with their country of origin. The dominant country from which Guyanese receive remittances is the United States of America (USA), followed by

End of Period	Credit (Inflows)	Debit (Outflows)	Net Remittances
2002	51.0	(47.6)	3.4
2003	99.3	(44.9)	54.4
2004	153.0	(74.8)	78.2
2005	201.3	(48.9)	152.4
2006	218.1	(42.4)	175.7
2007	278.5	(54.1)	224.4
Jun-08	144.98	(33.20)	111.8

Recipients of remittances collect money primarily through money transfer agencies or informal channels (either by hand delivery or other unrecorded channels). Money transfer agencies in Guyana capture 73 percent market share of remittances whereas, commercial banks and non-banks capture 19 percent and 8 percent market share, respectively.

There are no barriers to entry in the remittance market in Guyana, for that reason money transfer agencies are free to enter and leave the market making it highly competitive. This situation gives the users of remittances better options in choosing their remittances service provider.

Further, Guyana's true value of remittance inflows is difficult to record, since many Guyanese migrants remit by means of hand delivery. Nevertheless, in the Bank's effort to facilitate and capture the flows of remittances to Guyana, a Bill has been proposed to the National Assembly to ensure that all persons operating or desirous of operating the business of money transfers are monitored by the Bank, that is, it seeks to provide an effective administrative, operational and legal framework for the conduct of the business of money transfers.

Under this bill, all businesses of money transfers are required to obtain a license issued by the Bank, and are thereafter required to obtain a renewal of their license every year. Further, all entities operating the business of money transfers are subject to ensure that all records, accounts, books and other information are kept and can be produced at any time the Bank feels the right to inspect. The Bank will also have the right to make regulations and guidelines for entities to carry out the business of money transfers in the best interests of the financial system and in the public interest. This proposed legislation is not directed to discourage entry but to ensure transparency in the remittance market. □

3. OUTLOOK

GDP Growth & Inflation

The economy is expected to grow at a slower rate in 2008 than the Budget target of 4.9 percent. This outturn is largely due to lower output from the sugar industry and forestry sector. The easing of food and fuel prices in the latter part of the third quarter 2008 is expected to lower inflation for the remainder of the year.

Balance of Payments

The balance of payments is expected to strengthen with an improvement in the current account from higher export earnings and lower import costs. The capital account is expected to remain in surplus, on account of projected increases in capital inflows from bilateral and multilateral agencies.

Foreign Exchange Market Activities

A stronger balance of payments position is expected to favorably impact the exchange rate. In the last quarter of 2008 the Bank projects purchases of US$18.9 million and US$38.3 million from GUYSUCO and Gold Board, respectively. Sales for imports and debt servicing are projected to be US$110.4 million.

Monetary Policy

The monetary policy objectives will remain the same for the remainder of the year. The Bank will continue to monitor factors that may adversely impact on the financial system. In order to facilitate the Bank's effort at controlling inflation, it is important that the central government maintain a prudent fiscal stance. This outlook would entail that the government keep spending in line with budgetary targets.

The Bank will continue to manage the expansion in base money. Therefore, while the principal focus will be on achieving low inflation, some room will be given to the commercial banks to increase credit to the private sector in order to facilitate growth.

The Global Economy

The global economy is projected to continue its slowed momentum in 2008, as growth on an annual basis is expected to moderate at 3.9 percent from 5 percent in 2007. Advanced economies are expected to continue their decline into or close to recessions, as the global market turmoil affects credit availability and intensifies existing financial strains caused by the U.S.A mortgage collapse. However, emerging economies are expected to be the driving force behind world growth, albeit at a slower pace.

Advanced economies are estimated to grow by a dismal 1.5 percent at the end of 2008 from its 2.6 percent one year ago as they continue to slide towards a recession. Despite its robust performance during the first half, the U.S.A economy is expected to grow by 1.6 percent, while the EURO area is only expected to grow by 1.3 percent and the United Kingdom by 1 percent amid fears of further financial collapse in the respective economies. Canada and Japan are projected to record growth of 0.7 percent each in 2008. Emerging economies in Asia are expected to grow on an average of 7.7 percent, led by China with projected growth of 9.7 percent. Latin American and the Caribbean economies though vulnerable in the existing external financial conditions, are expected to grow by 4.6 percent and 3.7 percent, respectively in 2008.

Inflation in advanced economies will be kept in check by tighter monetary policy, especially in the U.S.A and Europe. Falling international commodity and fuel prices from their mid-year highs and slowing global demand are expected to moderate inflation in the remaining months of 2008. Inflation in the U.S.A and Europe are projected at 4.2 percent and 3.5 percent, respectively, while emerging economies expect inflation of 7.3 percent. Latin America and the Caribbean countries also expect inflation to decline to 7.6 percent and 12.1 percent, respectively. The immediate policy challenges in the global economy are to stabilize ailing financial markets and restore confidence for consumer spending and investments. □

II. NOTES TO THE TABLES

TABLE 1.1: Bank of Guyana: Assets

Foreign Assets

Balances with Foreign Banks: Deposits of the Central Bank with Foreign Banks. The data also include holdings of foreign notes and gold. Figures from December 2005 to December 2006 were restated to reflect the audited statements.

Gold Tranche with the I.M.F.: One quarter of Guyana's subscription to the International Monetary Fund (I.M.F.) quota, which is made in gold and/or convertible currencies.

Holdings of Special Drawing Rights: Unused portion of the Special Drawing Rights (S.D.R.s) allocated by the I.M.F.

Money Market Securities: Holdings of short-and long-term debt instruments of foreign governments and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (I.B.R.D.) recorded at cost. Figures from December 2005 to December 2006 were restated to reflect the audited statements.

Claims on the Central Government: Holdings of the Government of Guyana Treasury Bills, Debentures valued at cost and Advances from the Bank of Guyana. The Bank of Guyana Act No. 19 of 1998 section 46 has since removed the possibility of advances to Government since it restricted the Central Bank from extending credit directly or indirectly to the Government from that date.

Advances to Commercial Banks: Short term credit to Commercial Banks.

Other Assets: Include fixed assets such as land and buildings, furniture and equipment. Cheques in the process of collection, notes and coins issued by the British Caribbean Currency Board, non-interest-bearing debentures, and other miscellaneous assets are also included.

TABLE 1.2: Bank of Guyana: Liabilities

Currency Issue: Notes and Coins issued by the Bank.

Value of notes issued for October 1999 and August 2000 does not correspond with figures in table 1.3 due to an accounting discrepancy.

Government Deposits: Current account deposits of the Central Government which includes sterilised amount from open market type operation with effect from 1994.

Deposits of International Organisations: Obligations to the I.M.F.; local currency component of the subscription to the I.M.F. quota; deposits of the I.B.R.D, the Caribbean Development Bank (C.D.B.) and foreign central banks. Other foreign liabilities of the Bank of Guyana are also included.

Bank Deposits-EPDs: Guyana dollar deposits with the Bank of Guyana made by Commercial Banks on behalf of their customers pending foreign exchange releases to meet foreign obligations which fell into arrears prior to 1990. This scheme was discontinued for foreign obligations after 1990.

Bank Deposits-Other: Commercial Banks' interest earning deposits and statutory reserve deposits with Bank of Guyana are recorded here. With effect from December 1994, special interest earning deposits of the Commercial Banks were discontinued in favour of unremunerated required free reserves. The removal of remuneration for these deposits coincided with the issue of three-year debentures to sterilise the prevailing excess liquidity levels of banks.

Other Deposits: Includes deposits of National Insurance Scheme (N.I.S.), Livestock Development Fund, Guyana Pension Scheme, Mayor and City Council, Sinking Funds, Guyana Co-operative Agricultural and Industrial Development Bank, Export Development Fund No. 1, Guyana/Libya Agricultural Development Company Limited, and Guyana/Libyan Fishing Company among others.

Other Liabilities: Include provision for accrued expenses, items in transit; private investment fund; and miscellaneous items. The decline in Other Liabilities from November 30, 2002 to December 31, 2002 reflect the charging of valuation changes to Other and Government Deposits.

TABLE 1.3: Bank of Guyana: Currency Notes Issue

Total issue of less withdrawal of mutilated or spoiled legal tender notes. In December 1996, the Bank of Guyana introduced a G$1,000 as part of its currency reform process. The value of credit obtained by each industry for a given period can be obtained by taking the difference between the balances at the end of the desired period and that immediately preceding. The balances in this table exclude inter-bank loans, real estate mortgage loans, local securities and other credit instruments. It should be noted that gross indebtedness of the sugar and rice industry can be obtained by adding the balances of sugar cane and sugar and molasses manufacturing of sugar, and paddy and rice milling for rice respectively. See note under Loans to Non-Residents for Table 2.1 (a) above. See note under Private Sector for Table 2.1(a) above.

TABLE 2.14: Commercial Banks: Liquid Assets

The liquid assets comprise Bank of Guyana notes and coins, foreign currency held by banks, (special interest earning) deposits held at the Bank of Guyana (BOG), balances due from other Commercial Banks - both local and foreign, Government of Guyana Treasury Bills. The special reserves deposits (SRDs) established in 1969, discontinued in 1994 as the Bank of Guyana sought to develop its capacity to manage the excess reserves of the bank more effectively. Approximately, 75-80 per cent of the SRDs were absorbed through a sale of three year, variable rate, fixed date debenture to the Commercial Banks.

Prior to March 1989, the legally required level of liquid assets to be held by the Commercial Banks against their deposit liabilities was calculated as the sum of 20 percent of demand liabilities and 15 percent of time liabilities. During the period March 31, 1989 to May 15, 1991 the determination of the required liquid assets held by the banks was based on actual holdings on specified dates. Accordingly, from March 31, 1989 to June 30, 1990 required liquid assets were stipulated as the actual holdings on March 15, 1989. Between July 30, 1990 and February 19, 1991 the required liquid assets was based on the assets held by the banks on September 30, 1989. Further, between February 20, 1991 and May 14, 1991 the required balances were set as at the end of July 30, 1990.

With effect from May 15, 1991, however, the basis for calculating required liquid assets was changed to 25 percent of demand liabilities and 20 percent of time liabilities. Further, amendments to the liquid asset requirements became effective on 26th, October 1998. The liquid assets base period has been redefined as the Monday to Friday workweek immediately preceding the liquid asset maintenance period. The liquid asset requirement is determined by applying the prescribed percentages to the weekly average of the daily liabilities balances at the close of business of each of the five days of the liquid asset base period. Figures for Treasury Bills were reclassified from December 2000 to December 2002.

TABLE 2.15: Commercial Banks: Minimum Reserve Requirements

Prior to May 16, 1991, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were calculated as 6 percent of demand liabilities and 4 percent of time liabilities. Their percentages were changed with effect from May 16, 1991, to 11 percent of demand liabilities and 9 percent of time liabilities. Commencing April 7, 1994, the minimum required reserves of the Commercial Banks were again revised to the sum of 16 percent of demand liabilities and 14 percent of time liabilities.

On June 29, 1998, in addition to Commercial Banks, other licensed Financial Institutions were required to maintain balances with the Central Bank against their deposits and other liabilities. Further, the required reserve period has been changed on Monday to Friday workweek instead of the Wednesday to Thursday week used previously. The required reserve period has been referred to as the reserve base period. The week following the current reserve base period, i.e. the reserve maintenance period is also based on the Monday to Friday workweek. The deposits and other liabilities to which the required reserve ratio(s) are applied are referred to as the reserve base. During the reserve maintenance period, all licensed Financial Institutions subject to reserve requirement are required to maintain reserves against the relevant deposit and other liabilities.

Effective February 1, 1999, the required reserve ratio applicable to all liabilities of licensed Financial Institutions was lowered to twelve per cent (12 %). The first reserve base period for which the revised requirements became relevant was the 1st to 5th February 1999 while the reserve maintenance period was the 8th to 12th February 1999. However, reserve balances for the Non-Bank licensed Financial Institutions are excluded from table 2.15.

The Guyana dollar was fixed in Pound Sterling at the rate of £1 to G$4.80 until October of 1975 when it was linked to the US$1 to G$2.55.

On June 2, 1981, the Guyana dollar was pegged to a composite basket of currencies consisting of the United States dollar, Pound Sterling, Deutsche Mark, Trinidad and Tobago dollar and the Japanese Yen. The exchange rates was fixed at US$1 to G$3.00. The US dollar was the intervention currency used to determine the exchange rate.

From January 11, 1984, the composite basket of currencies was adjusted to include the Pound Sterling, Deutsche Mark, Japanese Yen, French Franc and the Netherlands Guilder, the US dollar, although nor part of the revised basket, remained as the intervention currency. The United States dollar/Guyana dollar exchange rate was announced weekly. From October 1984 until January 1987, the exchange rate was maintained in the range of G$4.15 to G$4.40 per US dollar.

Effective January 19, 1987, the Guyana dollar was devalued to G$10 to US$1, effective from April 3, 1989 the Guyana dollar was devalued moving from G$33 per US$ to US$1.
